They help to cure nations of their conceit, and impress in the only passible way—no matter what kind it may be. The big war cost the world at least $200,000,000,000, to say nothing of 20,000,000 deaths. The Spanish influenza and hatred, all among the coal strike, has cost the United States 350,000,000 lbs., and it will take years to repair that loss. Wars have been necessary; strikes have been necessary, but they ought always to be necessary.

Woman May Die of Injuries; Husband Held in City Jail

Mrs. Ira Shaffer, Waterloo-St, in Critical Condition in City Hospital Following Collision Between Automobile and City Car on W. Center-St

HUSBAND HELD ON INTOXICATION CHARGE

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Liggett, W. Columbia-St, Also Injured in Crash; Driver Swerves Motorcar Directly into Path of Streetcar in Front of Central Junior High School

Mrs. Ellen M. Shaffer, age about 35, is in a critical condition and may die, and her husband, Ira L. Shaffer, a machinist employed by the Marion Steam Shovel Co., is under arrest at the city prison, as a result of an automobile driven by Shaffer having crashed into a street car shortly before 7 o'clock Sunday evening in front of the Junior High School building on W. Center-st.

Shaffer, according to reports to the police, was intoxicated at the time of the accident. Mrs. Shaffer is in City Hospital, where it is reported that her condition is "very serious."

Driver Held

Shaffer is held on the technical charge of intoxicaton and will be kept at the city jail pending outcome of his wife's injuries. She suffered a compound fracture of her right leg below the knee, her left arm was crushed between the elbow and wrist and a deep gash was cut across the forehead from one temple to the other. She is unconscious and it is feared that there are serious internal injuries.

In the automobile with Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Liggett of 557 W. Columbia-st. Mrs. Liggett, who was thrown from the machine by the impact of the crash, sustained numerous cuts and bruises about her head and body. Liggett's face and hands were cut by flying glass and his left shoulder was broken and badly bruised. Shaffer, who was pinned beneath the steering wheel, was cut about the face, neck and hands.

Taken To Hospital

The four were taken to the City Hospital at once in Gunder's ambulance, but all excepting Mrs. Shaffer were able to be taken away after receiving surgical treatment, Mr. and Mrs. Liggett being removed to their home and Shaffer to the city jail.

According to police reports of the accident, Shaffer swerved his automobile directly into the path of the street car without warning or apparent cause.

CITY REDUCES DEBT $94,443.66 IN SINGLE YEAR

Redeems $172,962.05 Worth of Bonds and Issues $40,686.27, Report Discloses

Marion City's total bonded indebtedness on June 30, 1926, was $2,483,176.41, a reduction of $94,443.66 since June, 1925.

The figures were announced today when County Auditor Budge C. Decker released the annual bonded indebtedness report of the city and county.

The grand total includes not only general debts but also covers debts incurred by special assessments.

The total general debt of the city on June 30, 1926, was $1,647,512.77, as compared with a debt of $1,779,818.55 at that time last year.

Issues Bonds

During the year, the city redeemed $172,962.05 on its old debt but at the same time issued bonds amounting to $40,686.27 to aid in paying its share of the street improvements.

The special assessment debt shows an increase of $37,842.12 over the debt of the same nature on June 30, 1925. The total this year was $835,633.64 while in June last year it amounted to only $797,791.52.

Only $109,100 was redeemed on special assessments during the year while $146,942.12 in bonds was issued to aid in the expenses incurred in the improvement of streets.

County Debt Up

Total indebtedness of the county on June 30, 1926, increased $88,422.38 over last year, according to the report issued by the county auditor.

The debt report for this year lists that o the county at $896,122.38. Last year

Y. M. C. A. LAYING FINAL PLANS FOR OPEN HOUSE

Program Will Start at 7:30 O'Clock Tonight; Games and Contests Arranged

Committeemen are busy today making final arrangements for the annual opening of the Y. M. C. A. tonight. Repairmen and decorators have finished their work and the association building is again ready for another busy season.

Tonight's program will start at 7:30 o'clock. The bowling alleys, gymnasiums, swimming pool, game rooms, library and billiard parlors will be open. Music for the occasion is to be furnished by radio which equipment is being installed this afternoon by a local dealer.

Games and contests will be held in the two gymnasiums. The house will be open to men, women and children. The six bowling alleys are expected to be very busy. They are in first class condition and should encourage the early opening of the local leagues.

Women and children will also take part in the gymnasium and swimming programs. Plans were being made to have Ima Fish Club members demonstrate the fact that it is a simple matter to learn to swim, if properly instructed.

Late in the evening's program, refreshments will be served by the committee women.

The public is cordially invited to attend the party.

UNDERWORLD PACKS UP AFTER ARREST OF 51

Steubenville, Sept. 27—The underworld here is packing up and preparing to leave enmasse, as the result of wholesale raids staged by the new acting mayor and chief of police, which resulted in police courts today being glutted with the cases of 51 prisoners.

Acting Mayor E. J. Sande and Ross Cunningham, serving as chief of police superintended the raids early yesterday which resulted in the capture of 42 men and nine women. They are charged with vice violations.

HEAVY WEEK-END FROST DAMAGES GARDEN CROPS

Corn in County Escapes; Cold Wave Climaxes with 36 Degree Temperature

Marion felt the full force of the cold wave which swept in from the Northwest beginning Saturday, when the weatherman's wintry offering reached its most severe stage Sunday morning, sending the mercury down to 36 degrees.

Evidence of a heavy frost was seen on building roofs throughout the city and it is believed that considerable damage was done to late garden produce. Corn has matured sufficiently to escape serious injury, according to reports from farming districts.

That the premature wintry blast will be of short duration is indicated by today's weather forecast, which schedules cloudy skies and probably showers tonight and Tuesday with slowly rising temperature Tuesday.

Sunday's weather was a decided contrast with that of a year ago, when the official thermometer of Dr. E. H. Raffensperger, government weather observer, registered a high mark of 77 degrees and a low of 64. Yesterday the mercury hit 59 at the warmest stage and last night it dropped down to 46.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW SAFE OF PURE OIL CO. FAILS

Burglars Mysteriously Scared Away After Knocking Off Combination

An attempt to blow the safe at the Pure Oil Co. office on W. Center-st, Sunday night, failed when the burglars were frightened away after they had knocked off the handle and combination dial of the safe and started to insert soap and nitroglycerin preparatory to setting off the blast.

The attempted burglary was disclosed to office employes this morning when they reported for work. A heavy chair had been placed in front of the office door and other safeguards taken to prevent detection. What hapened to cause the robbers to cease operations is unknown.

H. R. Talbott, manager of the Pure Oil Co. here, stated this morning that even had the safe been opened the yeggs would have been poorly rewarded, as only about $15 was on the inside, practically all of Saturday's receipts having been taken to the bank in accordance with the company's daily routine.

The police department was immediately notified this morning and officers visited the scene of the attempted robbery. No clues were obtained, however.

J. H. Eymon, Marion attorney who is an expert on safes and combinations, was summoned by Mr. Talbott to open the safe and ascertain the amount of damage.

MAY NAME COMMISSION TO MAKE RELIEF SURVEY

Florida Governor Sifting Host of Plans Submitted to Him

Tallahassee, Fla., Sept. 27—Formation of a commission to make a survey of the storm-stricken districts of southern Florida and ascertain exactly what the state of Florida can do in rehabilitation and reconstruction, is being considered by Governor John W. Martin.

"There have been so many relief plans advanced that I want to sift through all of them before officially committing the state to any certain program," Governor Martin declared today.

"We are going ahead meanwhile with emergency measures necessary to relieve urgent situations."

Mayor Wall, of Tampa, suggested that the commission be composed of professional and business men and engineers, whose training could be used to expediate relief work.

FORMER A. E. F. CHAPLAIN IS DEAD IN CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, Sept. 27—Funeral preparations were being made here today for the late Rev. Stanley Matthews of Cleveland, former chaplain of the 307th infantry, seventy-seventh division A. E. F.

Dr. Matthews died at Christ Hospital here yesterday following a long illness contracted while in the service. He was at the time of his death chaplain of Bethany Home Orphanage here.

AIMEE AND HER MOTHER TO HAVE HEARING TODAY

Los Angeles, Sept. 27—Aimee Semple McPherson, noted woman evangelist, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, her mother, and Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Seilaff were to have their preliminary hearing today on charges of criminal conspiracy to defeat justice and preparing false evidence.

DON'T SELL HARD CIDER, POLICE CHIEF WARNS

Soft Drink Dealers Ordered To Exercise Greater Care Following Complaints

Local soft drink dealers must exercise greater care in the sale of cider, according to instructions issued today from Chief of Police James W. Thompson, who states that complaints have been filed with him alleging that some of the cider sold at several places of business here has been permitted to reach a point beyond the limits prescribed by Volstead.

The chief source of complaint is the fact that some of the objectionable beverage has reached boys of tender years, according to information filed with the chief. One complaint came from the parents of a boy who charge that he became intoxicated as a result of drinking some of the cider.

Orders are being issued from police headquarters directing all soft drink dealers to keep close watch on their cider supply and to sell none after it has reached the fermentation stage.

AL SMITH IN CONTROL OF NEW YORK MEETING

Syracuse, N. Y. Sept. 27—Governor Al Smith was in complete control of the democratic state convention which got under way here at 11 o'clock today.

Completely recovered from his recent illness, the governor sat in conferences with the leaders until the early hours of this morning discussing the ticket and the platform.

Supreme Court Justice Robert F. Wagner, of New York City, will be nominated for United States senator and Governor Smith will be renominated, it was indicated.

HOPE TO REACH ENTOMBED MEN BY WEDNESDAY

Company Officials Believe That Workers Will Effect Rescue by That Time

HAVE PLENTY OF WATER

Disaster That Imprisons 43 Miners at Ironwood Brings Crowds to City

Ironwood, Mich., Sept. 27—Hope flared anew today for the rescue of 43 miners, entombed since Friday in the Oliver Mining Company's Pabst G Mine. According to company officials rescue workers will reach the trapped miners by Wednesday and it is believed the miners will be able to survive until then.

Should the rescue be delayed longer, however, the men will never be brought out alive, it is feared. The entombed men have an ample supply of water and the oxygen supply is sufficient to keep them alive until Wednesday, it is believed. All the men are hardy and able to go many days, if necessary, without food.

Though the miners are known to be without food, they have an ample supply of water, officials say. Excellent mineral water seeps through various places on the eighth level, it was said.

Thousands Invade City

The disaster has created feverish interest among citizens in this great iron belt of the upper peninsula, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Thousands invaded the city over the week-end. Strong police lines were required to keep relatives and friends from impeding the work of rescuers in their anxiety to get close to the scene. Nearly 200 men are assisting in the rescue work. They are working four-hour shifts. Mine officials refused to permit Louis Gessner, a miner, to risk his life in an effort to reenter the mine without timbering its sides, one official declaring it would mean certain death. Rescuers are making little headway. The men are entombed on the eight level.

The three men whose bodies have been recovered were killed when the avalanche of rock and debris struck a mine cage in which they were working on the twenty-sixth level. Various mining officials from the United States Steel Corporation, of which the Oliver Mining Co. is a subsidiary, have arrived here to assist in rescue work. Separate routes are being worked to reach the entombed miners.

POINCARE SAYS FRANCE NEVER RENOUNCED DEBTS

Charges Germany's Failure to Pay Decreased French Interest Payments

Barleduc, France, Sept. 27—Premier Poincare, speaking today before the general council of the department of the Meuse, flatly denied that France had ever thought of renouncing her debts, or ever would entertain such a thought.

"France has never renounced her foreign debts," he said. "In fact, she already has made important interest payments, which would have been even larger if Germany's failure to pay up had not forced France first to restore her own devastated regions.

"For the future, France is nevertheless determined to liquidate her debts loyally up to the very limit of her capabilities."

The premier then came to the situation created by Foreign Minister Stresemann's assertion that Germany's acceptance into the League of Nations showed that the burden of war guilt no longer rested on the reich. In elaborating on his statement of yesterday before the War Veterans at St. Germain, Poincare said:

"Today, like yesterday, France is ready to attempt collaboration with her former adversary, within the limits of our treaty alliances and provided that it permits no doubt to be cast upon the responsibility of the imperial German government in the war."

ENTIRE FAMILY WIPED OUT IN CROSSING CRASH

Ohio Man Stops on Tracks; Unable to Back Off in Time

Vermillion, Sept. 27—Authorities here today are investigating the collision between a New York Central train and an auto which wiped out an entire family.

The dead are:

Peter Molnar, 50, Bay Ridge, Ohio; his wife, 48; their son, Marcus, 20, and a niece Anna, 6.

It is believed that Molnar stopped his car on the tracks when he saw a mud hole on the other side. While attempting to back from the tracks, his car was struck by the train.

The wrecked machine was hurled 200 feet and Molnar's body carried a half mile from the scene.

Cleveland, Sept. 27—Mr. and Mrs. Victor Pitchkowski and Julian Grudych are dead here today as the result of injuries caused when their auto plunged over a 50-foot embankment.

STEEL MAGNATE LEAVING MILLS FOR FARM LIFE

Charles Schwab

With a great career in industry, particularly in steel, well earned, Charles Schwab turns his activities to agriculture as a possibly less profitable but rather more enjoyable occupation. However, he gives his word to young men that industry today offers greater opportunities than ever before.

FORMER MARION COUNCILMAN IS SERIOUSLY HURT

W. E. Coler, Steam Shovel Foreman, in Columbus Hospital After Auto Mishap

William E. Coler, 235 Blaine-av, foreman employed at the Marion Steam Shovel Co. plant and a former member of the City Council here, is in a serious condition at the White Cross Hospital in Columbus as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile collision a mile south of Westerville, Saturday night.

His wife and Miss Mildred Moore, 18, who resides at the Coler home here, were also injured and are at the same hospital but their condition is not regarded as serious.

The accident occurred on a bridge near Westerville about 6 o'clock Saturday night as Mr. and Mrs. Coler and Miss Moore were enroute to Columbus in the Coler car, a Jewett sedan. The Coler machine was struck and overturned by a car owned and driven by a Sunbury man. Mr. Coler was crushed about the chest, Miss Moore sustained a fractured pelvis and numerous cuts and bruises. Miss Coler's face was badly lacerated and bruised.

Miss Moore Driving

Miss Moore was driving and applied the brakes suddenly as she saw the Sunbury machine entering the bridge from the opposite direction, causing the Coler car to skid sidewise across the narrow driveway. The Marion machine was partially demolished in the crash which followed.

The Marion people were on their way to Columbus from the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Seebrist in Westerville, where Miss Moore has been living while attending Otterbein University. They had expected to come to Marion after calling on relatives in Columbus.

Mr. Coler, whose condition is such that the outcome of his injuries will not be known for several days, is one of the best known workmen of the Marion Steam Shovel Co., having been employed at the local plant for more than 30 years. He served as a member of the city council about four years ago.

Miss Moore was a member of the 1926 graduating class of Marion High School.

MRS. IDA M. RAPP DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Life-Long Resident of Marion Will Be Buried on Wednesday

Mrs. Ida M. Rapp, 77, a life-long resident of Marion, died at 11:30 p. m. yesterday at her home, 329 E. Center-st, following a 24-hour illness of obstruction of the bowel. Mrs. Rapp was born in Marion Township Dec. 11, 1849, the daughter of Elizabeth McWherter of Piqua and Francis Campbell, originally of Ireland, both of whom preceded her in death. Mrs. Rapp had been married twice, to James Walters and later to William C. Rapp, both of whom preceded her in death, the latter having died 15 years ago. She had been a member of Trinity Baptist Church, this city, for 60 years.

Mrs. Arthur C. Bachman, 329 E. Center-st, a daughter, Claude C. Walters, Ellis-st, a son, and O. S. Rapp, 213 S. Greenwood-st, a stepson, survive.

Funeral services will be held at the home, 329 E. Center-st, at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. J. S. Davis, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be made in Marion Cemetery.

Nine Killed and 21 Injured When Two Trains Crash

Fatal Rail Collision Occurs as Lehigh Valley Express Enters Converging Tracks at Bethlehem, Pa.; Binghampton Flier Strikes Second Coach

BURN THROUGH STEEL CARS TO REACH BODIES

Blame for Accident Placed on Engineer of Flier by Officials; Train Running Ahead of Time and Against Signals, Lehigh Men Claim

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 27—Nine persons were killed and 21 injured when the "Binghampton Flyer" of the Central Railroad of New Jersey crashed into the Buffalo-to-New York Express train of the Lehigh Valley Railroad here today.

The accident occurred at 5:55 a. m., as the Lehigh train was pulling into the station here. The tracks of both roads converge at a "Y" angle at this point. The "Binghampton Flyer" struck the second coach of the Lehigh Limited squarely, tossing it, three other Pullman cars and a diner off the track.

All of the dead and injured with the exception of the engineer of the flier were on the Lehigh train.

The Dead

George Geventher, New Haven, Conn.

David Baum, believed from Wilkesbarre, Pa.

D. J. Shevlin, address unknown. He carried in his pocket an Ingersoll Rand Co. club card.

Five unidentified dead.

Identification Slow

Identification of the dead proceeded slowly. The rescue crew rushed here from Easton, Pa., had to burn through the steel cars to reach the bodies, several of which were badly crushed. Railroad men said the casualty list would undoubtedly have been much higher were it not for the fact that the cars were of steel construction.

The injured were taken to St. Luke's Hospital after receiving first aid in the railroad depot.

The injured:

Henry Schmidt, 153 W. Broadway, Mauchchunk, Pa., engineer of the Central Railroad train; Louis C. Baer, of Lehighton, Pa., body bruises and shock; George Engler, 59 McCarragher-st, Wilkesbarre Pa., severe body bruises; Thomas A. Mezanowski, student at the

COLD WEATHER BRINGS CALL FOR STRIKE END

Struggle Once More Transferred to Halls of Parliament; Settlement Sought

London, Sept. 27—With cold weather setting in, the one hundred and fiftieth day of the coal stoppage in England found the struggle again transferred to the halls of parliament, where another attempt to reach a settlement was made after the recent fruitless parleys in Downing-st.

Abandoning hope of getting further concessions from either the mine owners or the government, A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation, is publicly sounding a call for retreat, endeavoring at the same time to prevent a hasty rush for the pits until the miners' have achieved an official, though patched up, peace.

The house of commons is meeting this afternoon to consider the situation and will continue deliberations tomorrow. The house of lords also will meet this afternoon.

FREE SCHOOL CLINIC PROVES BENEFICIAL

Survey Shows Work of State Health Department Workers Remedied Defects

The Free School Clinic conducted here last May by physicians from the State Department of Health has yielded beneficial results, according to a check-up of the condition of the children started today by Dr. W. J. Weiser, City Health Commissioner. Seventy boys and girls went through the clinic examination, which was conducted by Dr. Van Orsdall and Dr. Mahoney of the state department. Dr. Weiser reports that many of the physical defects listed by examining physicians have been remedied and eliminated since May.

The check-up began today at the Lincoln building and will be continued Tuesday at Greenwood and Vernon Heights.

The clinic was held as the result of a movement started by the Parent-Teachers' Association of the city. The 70 children underwent examination at the request of their parents.

Dr. Weiser is being assisted in the check-up by Mrs. E. H. Morgan, president of the Parent-Teachers' Association and Miss Mary Catherine Hinklin, local Red Cross nurse.

CYCLONIC WINDS STRIKE ITALIAN EAST COAST

London, Sept. 27—Cyclonic tempests which in the last week have wrought havoc in various parts of the world today struck the city of Brindisi, on the eastern coast of Italy, according to a Central News dispatch from Rome.

The winds have caused tremendous damage, it was stated, and accompanying floods have isolated several sections. Many casualties are feared, although severed wire communications make definite information impossible. Brindisi has a population of 20,000.

FIVE DROWNED IN OHIO WHEN BOAT CAPSIZES

Five Others Escape by Swimming; Skiff Strikes Piece of Driftwood

Pomeroy, Sept. 27 — Five persons were drowned in the Ohio River early today when the skiff in which they were crossing capsized.

The dead:

Mrs. Robert Hunnell, 38; Mrs. R. H. Poulk, 48; Mrs. Jhon Meier, 50; Mrs. William Spangel, 38, and her three-months-old baby.

Ten persons, returning from an excursion to Pittsburgh, were in the skiff, but five escaped.

None of the bodies had been recovered at 8 o'clock this morning.

All of the dead lived in Pomeroy.

The five who escaped by swimming to shore were: Walter Neutzling, Ernest Lallance, Elizabeth Meier and a Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, all of this city.

The party visited Pittsburgh over the week-end on a railroad excursion. Returning, they left the train at Mason City, W. Va., and started across the Ohio River in a skiff to Pomeroy about 3 o'clock this morning, the regular ferry having stopped a short time before for the night.

Walter Neutzling, one of those who swam ashore, telephoned his sister-in-law, Mrs. Raymond Neutzling, that the skiff overturned when it collided with a huge piece of driftwood about a half mile from Pomeroy.

LIBERTY BONDS TRACED TO WASHINGTON C.H. BANK

Testimony Shows They Were Deposited in Account of Mal S. Daugherty

New York, Sept. 27—Four Liberty bonds, part of the $391,000 which Richard Merton, German industrialist, claimed he gave the late John T. King, Connecticut politician, for putting through Merton's claim to $7,000,000 in seized alien property, were traced to the Midland National Bank of Washington C. H., Ohio, at the Daugherty-Miller conspiracy trial in Federal Court today.

Daugherty, former attorney general, and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, are accused of having failed to give the government their best services in the transaction.

Mal S. Daugherty, brother of the defendant, is president of the Midland Bank.

The four Liberty bonds were deposited to the account of Mal Daugherty and subsequently a check was made out to Harry M. Daugherty by his brother, testimony showed.

The government planned to close its case today against Daugherty and Miller.

One of Seven Edison Stone Crushers Being Installed at Quarry North of Marion

New Machine, Weighing 127 Tons, Purchased by Ohio Blue Limestone Co., Expected To Be in Operation by Jan. 1, 1927

Foundation for the new Edison Stone Crusher, one of seven in the world, to be erected at the Ohio Blue Limestone Co. quarry, north of Marion, is now under construction.

The crusher was invented by Thomas A. Edison in 1910. The shipping weight on the machine which will be constructed at the Marion quarry is about 127 tons.

Plans call for the crusher to be placed 30 feet below the quarry floor. About three carloads of cement are being used in construction of the foundation.

According to officials of the company, the new stone breaker is expected to be installed and under production by Jan. 1, 1927.

With the installation of the stone crusher, a conveyor for the stone after running through the process of crushing, is being erected from the quarry floor to the present crushing machinery on the ridge.

Local Conveyor

The stone will be conveyed on a 36 inch belt 600 feet long. The belt rests approximately 37 a foot.

The steel construction of the conveyor is being handled by Fairweld Engineering Co., of this city. It is declared one of the largest pieces of steel construction yet to be undertaken by the local company.

Two rolls in the hopper of the crusher are run by electricity. The smaller roll takes 150 horse power and the larger 175 horse power.

At the top of the conveyor the stone goes through the scalping screen which takes out the fine stones. After the process it continues to the present stone crushing machinery.

W. J. Glenn, at one time owner of the Marion Tribune, now of Kenton, is president of the company. E. G. Holzhauer, of this city is secretary-treasurer and general manager. L. M. Sager, also of this city is assistant secretary and head bookkeeper.

SIX WEEK-END ARRESTS ON INTOXICATION CHARGE

Ruth Wilson Placed in County Jail; Accused of Resisting Officers

The Volstead law was not functioning very effectively in Marion, Saturday and Sunday, according to this morning's records at the police station, which listed six arrests on the charge of intoxication. Included was one woman, who gave her name as Ruth Wilson and her home as 184 Senate-st. She is also accused of resisting arrest, the charge being that she staged a vigorous battle when Officers Smith, Moody and Shrock sought to take her into custody. The arrest was made shortly before 11 o'clock Sunday night. The Wilson woman was taken to the county jail owing to the fact that there are no women's quarters at the city prison.

Others taken on charges of intoxication are Robert J. Carder, arrested at 5:30 Saturday afternoon on Olney-av by Officer McIntyre; Albert Jones, arrested shortly before 6 p. m. Saturday on W. Center-st by Officers Powell and McIntyre; Davis Harrington, arrested on W. Center-st at 7 o'clock Sunday evening by Officer McIntyre; S. E. Ellis, arrested Sunday night on Hocking-st by Officers Smith, Moody and Coffey; Charles Morris, arrested Sunday night at Hocking and Senate-sts by Officers Smith, Moody and Coffey.

TOO MANY BLACK EYES

Yonkers—If a woman receives a black eye from her husband, she may seek redress in court, but if she condones the offense and receives another, it is her own fault and she deserves it. Judge Charles W. Boote rendered this decision in city court Sunday, dismissing Mrs. Peter McTaggart's disorderly conduct complaint against her husband.

FAMOUS TENOR RETURNS

New York—John McCormack arrived here yesterday after a five-month concert tour of the Pacific coast, and a visit to China and Japan. His final concert in Tokio was attended by Prince Kuni and members of the Imperial household. Chinese music lovers he said, made up the most interesting and enthusiastic audience he ever had met.

FOOT CLINIC IN CHURCH

Leeds, England—So many women complained to Rev. J. G. Sutherland, pastor of a church here, that they couldn't walk to church on Sunday because of corns that he has opened a clinic in church building to attend to aching "dogs."

GRANTED PERMIT

Permits have been issued from the office of the city clerk to Louis Uhl for the construction of a garage at 468 E. Center-st at an estimated cost of $100 and to Mrs. Ella Scribner for a porch to be added to her residence property, 199 E. Columbia-st, at a cost of $90.

CHEFS DEMAND USE OF NAMES

Paris—A painter signs his landscapes and an author his books, so why should not a good chef's name be placed at the bottom of his menus? Blue ribbon chefs of Paris have organized and demanded that restaurants permit them to sign chefs-d'oeuvres.

HAYDEN CORNWELL, 37, RELEASED FROM JAIL

Hayden Cornwell, 37, of N. Seventh-st, who was committed to County Jail Tuesday after being unable to raise bond of $50 posted Mayor Earl Hane on a charge of intoxication, has been released, the payment of $7.75 [illegible]

LOANS up to $500

You can start an argument almost any time by merely mentioning "one half of one per-cent." It all depends on how "dry" or how "wet" the man you speak to happens to be. And no matter how heated the argument becomes, the percentage remains unchanged.

So it is with The City Loan. After long experience, we are perfectly satisfied with "one-half-of-one per cent." With us this figure represents about the percentage of folks who come to us for loans that we can't help, and we don't want it increased. You run a very slight chance of falling into this small percentage class when you apply for money at The City Loan, so don't be backward about letting us know your wants.

Lower Prices for Finer Studebaker Cars

An Announcement by Albert Russel Erskine, President of The Studebaker Corporation of America

IN establishing prices on the new Studebaker Custom Sedans, we anticipated an increased sales volume. This has been forthcoming, for sales of Sedans since August 1st, 1926, have been more than double the best previous similar period, and more than four times the same period in 1925.

The Big Six Custom Brougham has registered a particularly gratifying volume but our dealers assure us that if the price of this model can be lowered substantially, sales can be trebled beyond even present volume.

We are, therefore, reducing the price of this model $200.00, giving purchasers immediately the benefit of economies which will result from increased production.

The Big Six Custom Brougham at $1785.00 is selling at the lowest price ever established for a Big Six Four-Door enclosed car. Prices of the Big Six Club Coupe, Standard Six Country Club Coupe and Standard Six Sport Roadster have also been reduced.

The following reductions in factory list prices are effective September 27, 1926

	Price Cut
Standard Six Country Club Coupe	$ 35
Standard Six Sport Roadster	80
Big Six Club Coupe	205
Big Six Custom Brougham	200

Pennsylvania Locomotive and Two Coal Cars Derailed When Freight Hits Caboose

Collision Occurs Saturday Afternoon Between Columbia and Darius-Sts; Erie Wrecker Called into Service; Goods Scattered About Tracks

[illegible] cars were thrown [illegible] a caboose almost [illegible] and a locomotive [illegible]. Saturday afternoon, in a Pennsylvania wreck near Park-blvd, between Columbia and Darius-sts. No one was injured.

The wreck occurred when a northbound fast freight crashed into the caboose and two cars which were standing in its path.

The cars were thrown down an embankment and coal scattered about the tracks. The caboose, struck from the rear by the locomotive, was crushed between the two cars and the engine. The cars and caboose had been left standing in the yards while switching was being carried on.

The front wheels of the locomotive were thrown from the track as a result of the collision.

The Erie wrecker was called to take care of the wreckage while a device from the Marion Steam Shovel Co. cleared the coal from the tracks.

Heavy Traffic

The greatest freight traffic the railroads of this country ever called upon to move during any other corresponding period on record was handled by them during the first seven months of this year, according to report received here.

Marion has seen and handled its share of the great traffic rush during the year, the four railroads operating through this city taking a prominent part in the freight movement.

The American Railway Express Co., of this city, has felt the heavy increase in shipments of perishable goods, being called upon to "ice" many of the shipments traveling from coast to coast through Chicago and to New York over the Erie Railroad.

Although shipments of this nature will soon decrease and icing will no longer be necessary, the rush during the last few months will not soon be forgotten by local men.

Coal Shipment

Thousands of cars of coal have passed through Marion each day this summer enroute to the Great Lakes from the mines of West Virginia, Virginia and Kentucky. The Hocking Valley Railroad Co., operating a double track direct from the mine district to the Toledo docks, through Marion, has carried thousands of carloads of coal to its docks at Sandusky. Although handicapped by a single track in various districts between Columbus and Sandusky, the Pennsy has held its own through Marion and is responsible for much of the coal loaded at the Sandusky docks.

Lively Competition

The Big Four competes with the Erie in carrying shipments of perishable goods, including fruits, meats, dairy products and the like. Many times each day a locomotive, hauling from 55 to 75 cars of various kinds of goods, steams through Marion, eastward bound.

Not only is freight traffic much heavier this year than ever before but records show that the railroads have established high marks in efficiency and speed during the first half of 19[illegible]

The fast fruit special through [illegible] city over the Erie and Big Four [illegible] examples of the speed records.

And, again, not only were cars moved faster but they were loaded more nearly to capacity, showing a continued increase in the efficiency with which freight is being transported.

An extreme example of the maximum loadings of cars on the Hocking Valley through Marion was shown Friday when a wreck is said to have occurred near Upper Sandusky when continued rainfall added to the weight of a car of sand, causing it to collapse under the strain of the load.

But, not satisfied with the increased speed and efficiency in the past, the Hocking Valley Railroad Co. is making tests with rebuilt Santa Fe engines in an effort to increase the power of the locomotives now in use.

Conduct Tests

Tests have been conducted during the summer by fruit shippers and railroad officials in the rapid transportation of fruit from coast to coast without a loss in the cargo.

Even in passenger service railroads of this country are striving for more efficiency and less cost of operation. Gasoline cars and trains have been placed in operation on many short lines.

The Erie Railroad at present operates a gasoline car from Marion to Huntington, Ind., twice a day, and pronounces it a great success. The Pennsylvania Railroad has made several tests through Marion with a three coach gasoline train operating it from Sandusky to Columbus.

Time Table In Effect

The new Big Four time table took effect at 12:01 this morning. The schedule of only two passenger trains through Marion is affected by the new table.

The train formerly leaving Marion at 2:50 a. m. now departs at 2:55 a. m. It is a westbound through passenger train. The local passenger train formerly leaving at 5:07 for points west of Marion on the Big Four route, now departs from this city at 5:37.

The Big Four operates 12 passenger trains through Marion daily, except Sunday, when only ten are scheduled.

Miss Rogers Gained 15 Pounds in Six Weeks

Skinny Men and Women Gain 5 Pounds in 30 Days or Money Back.

My Dear Friends:

After my attack of Flu I was thin, rundown and weak. I had a sallow complexion, my cheeks were sunk in and I was continually troubled with gas on my stomach. I felt stuffy and had lost my appetite. I had read about McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and decided to give them a trial. At once, I began to pick up an appetite, my cheeks filled out and my complexion became healthy looking and I gained 15 pounds in six weeks and am very thankful for what McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets did for me.

To take on weight, grow strong and vigorous, to fill out the hollows in cheeks and neck, try McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets for 30 days. 60 tablets—60 cents at Bradley's Drug Store, Henney & Cooper and live druggists everywhere. If they don't give you wonderful help in 30 days, get your money back—you be the judge. But be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine.—Adv.

NOTED ACTRESS VISITS AMERICA AFTER 12 YEARS

Miss Olga Nethersole, snapped on arrival in New York

After an absence of 12 years Olga Nethersole, the famous actress who was the first to play "Sappho," some twenty years ago, arrives in America to attend an international conference on the prevention of tuberculosis. She served as a nurse in the British army subsequently devoting most of her energies to the health problems of Great Britain.

POMERENE AND BAKER SPLIT IN DEBT ARGUMENT

Former Candidate Believes in Generous Time Extension, but Wants Pay

Cleveland, Sept. 27—Atlee Pomerene and Newton D. Baker have definitely split over the issue of payment of foreign debts.

The former senator, during the administration in which Baker was a member of the cabinet, and again candidate for the senate, today explained his attitude on foreign debts—a position diametrically opposed to that of the former war secretary.

"I believe in being generous in the extension of time within which to pay and the rate of interest to be charged," Mr. Pomerene declared.

Debt Due Citizens

"The extension of time has been granted by the proposed settlement and the rate of interest is merely nominal.

"The debt is due our citizens, rather than our government.

"They—France—virtually ask us to cancel the debt which they owe our citizens and for which we virtually are guarantors."

The statement, rejecting the position taken by Baker recently in advocating cancellation of European debts, aligns Pomerene with Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi.

Senator Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, who is being opposed for re-election by Pomerene, already has gone on record as being opposed to cancellation of foreign debts.

PAINTINGS ON EXHIBIT AT WARNER & EDWARDS

Education Display Depicting Use of Linen Being Featured Four Days

A series of educational displays conducted by the Warner & Edwards Store is being featured the first four days of this week in a historical exhibit of oil paintings, portraying the consecutive periods in the use of linen from 4000 B. C. to the present time.

These paintings present in an attractive form a subject of much interest. The first of the paintings, each of which is five by seven feet in size, depicts an Egyptian scene of 4,000 B. C., when Pharoah's warriors were robed in the finest of linens.

During the expeditions Phoenicians of 1,000 B. C. with their rich cargoes of dainty, delicate wares, intrigue the imagination in another picture. A 15th century renaissance lady sorting over her household goods, stored in huge chests, carries one back to the days of that eventful era, while the seventeenth Century pilgrims show that in those years of pioneering the spinning and weaving of family linens was a necessary item in the duties of the early American housewife.

American Picture

The America of today with its amazing growth in industry is evident in a picture of a 6,000-acre field of flax and a huge loom, such as is used in large linen mills.

The picture exhibit is part of a program which has been offered by the largest department stores in New York-Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Washington, and other cities, prepared by the Klearflax Linen Looms Co., with the purpose of acquainting the public with the process of manufacture and the quality of goods used in construction.

STRANGE STALACTITES ARE FOUND IN GROTTO

Paris, Sept. 27—Something extraordinary in stalactities have just been discovered in the Grotto du Grand Roc at Laugerie-Basse. In form and delicacy they surpass anything yet found.

They are in the shape of crosses, dragon-flies, root forms, bouquets of coral, flutes and horns, one is exactly like a great salamander and another the reproduction of a large elephant's foot. The foundations are completely crystalline and transparent like glass with a little of the color of honey in them. There are hundreds all assembled together, amalgamated by a kind of bridge or other complicated appendices.

Such formations have been seen in Belgium aand Moravia but never in such profusion and exhuberance of forms as in this grotto which was only recently discovered by pure chance. Monsieur Le Bel, a celebrated chemist, noticed, with his collaborator, the presence of innumersble small springs at the base of the great cliffs. In the spring of 1024 they succeeded in penetrating into the labyrinth and there found the amazing formations.

Estate HEATROLA

This new-day heating plant uses any kind of fuel,—hard coal, soft coal, slack, coke, liguite, even wood. But, unlike the stove, it does not radiate heat—toasting your face while it leaves your back cold. It CIRCULATES moist, warm air in billowing waves that reach every out-of-the way corner of the house. The upstairs rooms are kept as comfortable as the room in which the Heatrola stands.

The heated air is moistened by water kept in a cleverly concealed vapor tank which holds enough to serve for twenty-four hours. This vapor tank is removed and refilled as easily as a water pitcher.

Learn how Heatrola is saving fuel and giving furnace comfort to thousands of homes in every part of the country.

Come in and we'll explain why it is also the answer to your heating problem.

The Heatrola is $154.50.

MRS. BROOKS FLETCHER SPEAKS AT CALEDONIA

Wife of Congressman Fletcher Has Charge of Services at M. E. Church

"Our Sacred Obligations To Make the Most of Ourselves" was the theme chosen by Mrs. Brooks Fletcher, wife of Congressman Fletcher for her talk last evening at Memorial M. E. Church at Caledonia.

Mrs. Fletcher also sang as a prelude to her talk, "My Task," and later sang "Open the Gates of the Temple." She also led in the congregational singing. Mrs. Fletcher was introduced by Mayor J. B. Bell of Caledonia. The church was filled to capacity for the occasion.

Mrs. Fletcher based her talk on the twenty-fifth chapter of St. Matthew and gave the modern interpretation regarding the developing of the talents. "If we do not use the talents God gives us they will be taken from us as illustrated in the scripture reading," Mrs. Fletcher said.

During the song service Mrs. Fletcher gave a short talk on the value of music in religious work and sang an interpretation of the snake dance, the Indian prayer for rain.

HURRICANE PERFORMS FREAKS IN MIAMI

Three glimpses of the hurrican's strange performance.

The storm which ravaged southern Florida also performed a vast variety of strange, freakish antics. Above, left, a freighter is seen nestling more or less amicably on the terrace in front of the Royal Palm Hotel, Miami. At the right, an automobile is hanging more or less amiably on upper window of a Miami motor sales concern. Below, a garage on Tiger Tail Road, Miami, is seen as it was found perched atop a car whose owner, more or less reasonably, failed to appreciate the storm's prank.

BLAME FOR ACCIDENT PLACED ON ENGINEER

New York, Sept. 27—Blame for the accident at Bethelhem, Pa., where nine persons were killed and 21 injured when the "Binghampton Flier" of the Jersey Central Railroad crashed into the Buffalo-to-New York Express on the Lehigh road, was placed on the engineer of the flier in a statement issued here today by the Lehigh.

The statement said:

"Running ahead of time, and with witnesses to this effect, and with the signals set against it, a train on the Central Railroad of New Jersey ran into No. 6 of the Lehigh Valley Railroad near Bethlehem station today. Train No. 6 was on time and had a clear road to the station.

"The Central Railroad train ran into the Lehigh Valley train between the second and third cars, overturning the second car, which was a steel passenger coach.

"Eight passengers and one trainman were killed and about 40 injured. The injured have been taken to St. Luke's hospital in Bethlehem."

CONGRESSMAN FLETCHER AT LEE STREET MISSION

"One of the tragedies of the world today is lack of statesmen leaders with a vision" declared Congressman Brooks Fletcher in his address last evening at the Lee Street Presbyterian mission. "Science is ahead of statesmanship," he continued. "Science made it possible for Jack Harding to sail around the world but many statesmen are not thinking around the world. Too many of them are still puddling around in political rings rationalizing instead of visualizing.

"Yet statesmen who have opportunities for leadership are not alone to blame. It is a matter of history that democracies have been brutal in their indifference and in their ingratitude toward their outstanding statesmen who were truly inspired leaders."

the debt was only $807,700. Although the county redeemed $140,500 during the year, $228,472.38 worth of bonds were issued to aid in the construction of roads, bridges, and culverts.

Bonds amounting to only $1600 were issued by villages in Marion County during 1925-26, the abstract discloses. The debt of villages has been reduced almost $17,000 in the same period. At present the village debt is $40,820.60 while a year ago it was $57,076.60.

No bonds were issued by the townships during the year while the debt was being reduced from $2,795.30 to $2,200.

Marion City schools also have not issued bonds during the last year and have reduced their debt $53,500, the annual report shows. Total indebtedness at this time is $872,500 while last year the abstract disclosed an indebtedness of $926,000.

On the other hand, bonded indebtedness of county schools has increased almost $55,000 during the last year. The school debt on June 30, 1926, was $557,917.07 while in 1925 it was only $502,643.75.

Although $38,077.50 was redeemed by the schools, bonds issued total $91,250.82. The construction of a new building in Pleasant Township accounts for much of the increase. County schools have $16,149.75 in their sinking fund.

The sinking fund of the county totals $89,521.98, a large portion of which is held in county bonds by the sinking fund trustees. Sinking fund trustees on June 30, 1926, held bonds amounting to $78,758.

The report just issued contains figures compiled in June but the preparation of the statement has been held back by several clerks in various districts who failed to submit their statistics until recently, it was said today.

AUTOIST CRSHES INTO GROUP OF CHILDREN

Columbus, Sept. 27—Margaret Ellen Hoffert, 5, is dead today and M. Brockman is in city prison, the result of Brockman's auto crashing into a group of small children going to Sunday school, police said. The dead girl's brother, Robert, suffered a broken leg.

RED CROSS FUND FOR FLORIDA IS $2,850,400

Washington, Sept. 27—The Red Cross' Florida disaster relief fund has reached $2,850,400.

Miami headquarters reported that trained disaster workers are expected to arrive there within a day or two. They will be assigned to relief duty all over the state.

Pabst-H, the bottom route; the third is being attempted by tunneling a separate hole upwards from the twenty-first level and the fourth is being attempted to supply food in table form to the miners.

This last method is being tried by means of a diamond drill, while make a hole 2½ inches in diameter. Still another effort is being made to drill 300 feet on an incline from Aurora F mine.

Little is known about the extent of the cave-in. Rescuers are hampered in their work by the necessary precautions needed to guard against a repetition of last Friday's cave-in. Rescuers must timber the way as they proceed to the unfortunate men on the eighth level. It is necessary to bank the earth on all sides of the shaft.

The United States mine relief crew at Ishpeming has been ordered to report here to aid in the rescue. Physicians, nurses, ambulances and all sorts of equipment is being held in readiness to insure prompt treatment should the miners be brought to the surface.

Churches Crowded

Churches in Ironwood were crowded to capacity Sunday.

Special prayers were offered for the safety of the entombed men.

Officials of the mine thus far have issued no statement as to the cause of the collapse of the shaft. Some people have ventured the opinion the recent heavy rains tended to loosen the earth, others maintain the "skip" which carries the ore from the mine jumped the track, tearing away steel and timber supports.

SHAFFER ACCIDENT

Information obtained by the police was to the effect that Shaffer was too intoxicated to know whether or not he was injured.

At the police station he gave three different figures for his age and was equally uncertain about the location of his home, giving it as Waterloo-st, Clinton-st and Toledo-av, police said. This morning, however, he informed the police that his home is at 356 Waterloo-st. His age is estimated at 35 years.

Car Wrecked

The Shaffer automobile a Willys-Knight touring car, was completely wrecked, the force of the collision being so great that the suspension arms on the motor were broken. The headlight of the street car was crushed in.

Shaffer was driving east and wheeled his machine onto the track when the street car, No. 506, was almost upon him. The car was in charge of Motorman William A. Cook of Short-st and Conductor J. S. Underhill of Davids-t.

The accident victims were given surgical attention by Dr. H. K. Mosser, official C. D. & M. Railway Co. physician, and Dr. J. G. McNamara.

Daily Proverb—"Learn some useful art that you may be independent of the caprice of fortune."

Quite a number of our editorial friends are now engaged in holding out that "brain defeats brawn." Possibly—once in seven years.

Four chorus girls were arrested in New York City for being only scantily attired. New York simply will not stand for even scanty attire on its chorus girls.

It's somewhat easier to understand why the outside world hates us since the announcement that practically all the ukuleles are manufactured in the United States.

Statistics show that 19,687,832 automobiles are now in use in the United States. The situation in which we true aristocrats find ourselves is beginning to look hopeless.

The Hall-Mills murder trial will be taken up and handled in court next month, which may be just as well. The correspondents can't reasonably expect to keep on trying it in the newspapers forever.

Of course, some of the fellows who lost something like three dollars on Dempsey are a bit sore at present, but they may forgive and forget—in time.

"When the streets of gold in heaven are torn up for installing water mains," the Tampa Tribune tells us, "the contractors relay them as smooth as they were." A novelty like that should naturally cause all of us to lead better and more upright lives.

After all the stuff we have been reading on the subject, it's a bit amazing to find President Coolidge taking chances at a time like this by proclaiming that marriage boosts progress. If he doesn't exercise caution, he'll liable to be set down as a hopeless reactionary.

Window Shopping.

As far back as goes the memory of man woman has been the target of ridicule as a result of her propensity to window shop. Her propensity in that direction has done long and noble service for the humorists, real and assumed, of the platform and the stage, the newspaper and the magazine. But that service is suspended, temporarily at least, and possibly for all time.

The explanation is that the "window shopping" jokelet has been found to be a two-edged weapon. The School of Business of Columbia university has been gathering statistics. Its students have been making tests of the drawing power of shop windows, and the tests have demonstrated that all the charges made against woman as a result of her window-shopping propensity have been sustained. But the tests proved more than that. They proved that man was much more inclined to window shop than woman, not only to glance into windows when passing them, but also to stop and gaze. Not only was it found that men stop oftener than women, but also that they stop longer and are far more absorbed than women in window displays.

The Columbia tests demonstrated that there are many displays which do not attract the attention of women, but that men are attracted by almost all. They stop and look at about everything from hosiery to hardware, from furs to furniture, from ruffles to rugs and about everything in between.

It may be urged that women stop in front of show windows for the mirror effects offered by them. Well, there's an answer to that. The tests showed that men more often arranged their ties, smoothed their eyebrows or changed the tilts of their hats than women powdered their faces, arranged their bobs or otherwise utilized the reflecting power of the plate glasses.

No, all things considered, we are not liable to hear much in the future in ridicule of woman's tendency to window shop.

Lima Star in New Home.

In commemoration of the formal opening of its splendid new home, Saturday afternoon and evening, the Lima Morning Star issued a sixty-page Sunday edition in which any publisher in Ohio might well take pride. It was excellently edited, bright and newsy throughout and perfect in its departmental arrangement.

The rise of the Star in the Lima newspaper field has been no less than marvelous. Taking over a semi-weekly publication of very indifferent merit, the present management of the Star in two years has taken a commanding position in the morning field in its section of the state and has today a circulation in excess of 14,000, which may be taken as another tribute by the public to clean and decent journalism, for the Morning Star did not follow the present newspaper trend away from sensationalism, but moved in advance of it, which also is a ground for just pride on the part of its management.

Financially sound, published in a spacious home which is spendidly equipped, under a management which stands for cleanness in both policy and utterance, with the manifest good will of its patrons behind it, it is easy to prophesy a bright and profitable future for the Lima Morning Star.

Still More Stormy Next Year.

In these columns, one day last week, we quoted Professor E. B. Frost, director of the Yerkes observatory of the University of Chicago, to the effect that scientists had been unable to trace any terrestrial consequences to sun spots other than magnetic and auroral.

Almost upon the heels of Professor Frost's announcement Dr. H. H. Clayton, of the Smithsonian institution in Washington, gave out for publication the results of a sixty-year comparison of the number and size of sun spots with terrestrial temperatures and with other elements of our weather, which demonstrates that the sun really controls our weather to a degree which scientists are bound to appreciate in the future if they do not now.

Doctor Clayton's comparison shows that the relation between sun spots and our weather is unmistakable; that the sun spots vary through a cycle of eleven years, "the causes of which are unknown, but doubtless are internal to the sun," and that a similar variation occurs in his records of our weather. His comparison shows that years of many sun spots have one kind of weather and years of few sun spots have another.

Sun spots, it is explained, are great disturbances upon the sun of a magnitude of which we here on earth can hardly conceive. Were all the great terrestrial storms of a year combined, the total would be the merest pigmy compared to the disturbance marked by a spot on the sun. These disturbances cause the sun to send out more heat, with the result that more heat reaches the earth with consequent disturbances here. The years of the greater spots on the sun have been the years of more and heavier storms here on the earth. In a word, the sun spot years are the stormy years, years when our weather is out of the ordinary.

The doctor states that we are now approaching the sun spot maximum; that there have been many sun spots this year and that there will be still more in the year to come. The year following that they will begin to diminish for a four or five year period and then grow in number for the maximum of the cycle of eleven years hence.

The presence of spots on the sun is not a discovery of recent times. They were known in ancient. Then, as now, they attained sufficient magnitude at regular periods, whatever the periods may have been in those times, to be visible to the naked eye, and it is hardly probable that the people of those times, who as a general rule, watched the heavens far more closely than the general run of humanity does now, did not associate such spots with the weather. As storms were among the greatest of misfortunes which came to those of the olden times, it is easy to understand how sun spots was held by them to be portends of coming evil, and to this extent there was a basis for some of the superstitions they held in connection with the sun. In other words, their observations of the sun led to some conclusions, which, though erroneously conceived, were scientifically correct, just as their study of the moon led them to believe that it had an effect on plant life, a conclusion which present-day science has confirmed.

It is good to know all these things which are coming to our knowledge day by day—such things as Dr. Clayton's comparison demonstrates regarding sun spots—but some of them have their disturbing phases.

If great disturbances upon the earth are due to great disturbances upon the surface of the sun, and the maximum of the sun disturbance of the present eleven-year cycle will not be attained until next year, the prospects of the weather conditions we may have to endure next year is not what might be called alluring.

It's a lead-pipe cinch that the man who gets the Hall-Mills murder witness vote is going to be elected over in New Jersey.

Two convicts were shot when attempting to escape from the Tennessee penitentiary. Can it be that Tennessee hasn't any parole board that convicts should feel impelled to resort to such a desperate course?

From a "sport" standpoint, it's all to the good for St. Louis to figure in a world series, but from a newspaper standpoint the difference in time puts the situation all to the bad.

Should Aimee decide to quit the evangelistic field, it strikes us that she shouldn't experience much difficulty in landing a job on one of those "confessions" magazines.

Vagrant Verse.

THE FACTORIES.

I have shut my little sister in from life and light—
For a rose, for a ribbon, for a wreath across my hair
I have made her restless feet still until the night,
Locked from sweets of summer and from wild spring air;
I who roamed the meadowlands, free from sun to sun,
Free to sing and pull the buds and watch the fur wings fly,
I have bound my sister till her playing-time is done—
Oh, my little sister, was it I? Was it I?

I have robbed my sister of her day of maidenhood—
For a robe, for a feather, for a trinket's restless spark,
Shut from love till dusk shall fall, how shall she know good,
How shall she go scatheless through the sunlit dark?
I who could be innocent, I who could be gay,
I who could have love and mirth before the light went by,
I have shut my sister in her mating time away—
Sister, my young sister, was it I? Was it I?

I have robbed my sister of the lips against her breast—
For a coin, for the weaving of my children's lace and linen,
Feet that pace beside the loom, hands that can not rest,
How can she know motherhood, whose strength is gone?
I, who took no heed of her, starved and labor-worn,
I, against whose placid heart my sleepy gold-heads lie,
Round my path they cry to me, little souls unborn
God of Life! Creator! It was I! It was I!

STEALING AESOP'S STUFF.

How Psychology May Harm Diet.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

I am writing this article on a railroad train, with a pencil I borrowed from the good-natured dining car steward. Thinking of him reminds me of the meal I just had.

There is a psychology in eating, especially in eating on a Pullman or in a restaurant. The waiter hands you two bills of fare. One is on the European plan and the other is a table-d'hote meal. The one requires you to select and to pay for each article you eat; the other is a stated meal, "from soup to nuts," for all of which you pay a stated price.

It would be better for your stomach if you ordered on the European plan. It might be worse for your pocket-book, but yet you would order only what you actually longed to eat.

But this is where psychology enters. For a dollar or a dollar and a quarter you can get a whole meal, beginning with shrimp cocktail and ending with demi-tasse and peppermints. You order the meal and your psychological impulse causes you to eat the cocktail, the soup, the fish, the entree, the roast, the vegetables, the salad, the punch, the pastry, the cheese, and to drink the coffee.

The American plan meal is like everything American. It is big, juicy, delicious, appealing and overgenerous.

This opinion won't hurt anybody's business, because old psychology is more potent than the word of any writer on health. In spite of all that may be said by Wiley, Evans, Brady, Currier, Reed, McCann, Peters, Copeland and company, the American people will be ruled by Dr. Psychology. That's that!

In plain, simple language, the thing I am driving at is that most folks eat too much. They eat too much because landlords, restaurateurs and housewives are so humanly and properly proud of their handiwork that they serve us too much food.

When these appetizing meals are set before us we have not enough character to resist the appeal. In the language of the street, we "fall for" them.

For every person who has starved to death in the past hundred years, in my opinion, ten persons have gone of the grave from overeating.

Study the needs of your body. Suit your intake to the sort of work you do. Eat more if you do hard, physical work. Eat less if your duties are sedentary.

Develop a psychology of your own. Don't be a slave to mass psychology or the psychology of the man who can resist everything but temptation. Respect the demands of your perverted palate and ear as a rational human-being should.

ANSWERS TO HEALTH QUERIES

B. C. L. Q—For the past few years I have had an affliction in the left side of the face—the cords seem paralyzed. It is noticed by some people and not by others—can you advise me concerning the condition?

A—It would be impossible to advise you without examination. I would suggest that you see your doctor. There may be pressure on a nerve.

* * *

MRS. C. C. Q—What would cause a feverish feeling in the head and face at times? Could this be due to nerves?

A—Nerves or neuritis. Make sure that you have no infection which might be responsible—have your teeth, tonsils, sinuses, intestines and kidneys examined.—Copyright, 1926.

* * *

MRS. J. H. J. Q—What is good for excessive perspiration in the armpits? 2—I have a small lump under the lower eyelid; while it does not seem to grow any larger, it makes the eye very red and inflamed. I have had it two years. What would you advise?

A—Hot water compresses applied under the arms for a half hour daily should check this trouble to a great extent. Excessive perspiration is often due to a nervous condition and the latter should be corrected. 2—See a doctor who will prescribe treatment after examination.—Copyright, 1926.

The Way of the World.

BY GROVE PATTERSON.

Dr. Lucien Howe, Kentuckian gives Harvard university a quarter of a million dollars. The money will endow a laboratory for the purpose of learning more about what can be done for eyes that do not see. Dr. Howe thinks that, perhaps, the human eye can be transplanted, and the blind be made to see. We are only at the beginning of the great works that science is going to do for the human race.

And now the man made atom. Scientists have known for some time of the unreleased energy in electrons and atoms. If the power of the atom could be turned to practical uses it would make steam, electricity and water power insignificant. Over in Germany two Berlin scientists announce they have discovered the secret of making the atom.

Suppose we learn the secret of converting this untold power into forms for human use? Are we intelligent enough to use such power right? Shall we know how to use our leisure time if we get to the stage where we can do almost anything by pressing a button?

Don't be satisfied to be amazed at the growth of the air mail service. You will live to see air mail service to Europe. The day will come when it will take no longer to send a letter to London from New York than it takes to send one from New York to Los Angeles.

One lesson we should have learned from the war is that forecasts, predictions, prophecies, are not to be trusted. Wise statesmen said the war couldn't happen. Balzac said "anything can happen." It does.

The cash value of an opinion as to what is going to occur is only a reasonable per cent. of its "sounding" value. Most of the bright economists of the land told us there could be no business prosperity in the United States until European markets are restored.

European markets are not yet resored and there is prosperity in the United States.

So-called business experts told us we could never again expect to see automobile factories run on full time as they did before the war. They run on full time. Saturation is not in sight.

When young Woolworth, son of the late five-and-ten multimillionaire, couldn't get a day off to see his pal married, probably his friends laughed. In years to come, when young Woolworth is reaping the reward of sticking to his job, there will be none to laugh and many to admire.

When Richard Wagner said that "joy is not in things, it is in us," he uttered a profound truth. You may have a big job or a little job. You may think your joy is dependent upon the size and significance of that job. Not so. Your happiness is dependent upon your attitude toward your work. It is dependent upon how you do it.

Who's Who and Why.

HOWARD PAUL SAVAGE.

Howard Paul Savage, who has announced himself as a candidate for commander of the American legion, was born in Boone, Iowa, January 3, 1894. His father, Thomas J. Savage, was a locomotive engineer for the Chicago, Northwestern railroad. Howard was educated in the Boone high school. He went to Chicago in 1900 with his mother, three brothers and a sister, to complete schooling. He attended the Lewis Institute of Technology for three years. He finished with one year at the University of Wisconsin.

After leaving school, he played baseball for two years, after which he started with the South Side elevated railway as a rodman, and at the end of three years was assistant engineer in charge of foundation construction.

On completion of this work, he spent the next five years with the Chicago Northwestern railroad and the city of Chicago in the engineer's department. Returning in 1913 to the Elevated, he started as an assistant engineer, later being named general superintendent of maintenance of way, a position he still holds.

Savage was commissioned first lieutenant of engineers from civil life June 7, 1918, in Chicago and was assigned to the fifty-fifth engineers at Camp Custer. He served with the regiment constructing railroads in France until June, 1919, and from then until July 1 repairing roads in France. He returned to the United States July 5, 1919, and was discharged in Washington, July 28, 1919. He is a member of the Reserve Officer's corps, as engineer.

Savage was enrolled in the Chicago Elevated Post, No. 184, of the American legion as temporary commander in August, 1919, and served in that position until the charter was received. He then was elected post commander for two years, developing the post from forty-nine members to 142. He served as vice president of the Cook County American Legion association, and then was elected president of the association. He was elected department senior vice commander in 1923 and department commander for 1924-25. He was elected as national executive committeeman for 1925-26.

The Red Men in Art.

[Hervey Allen, in North American Review.]

As a matter of fact the rhythms of the negro who accompanied the whites to North America, his attitudes and his folk lore, have had infinitely more of an effect upon white literature, art, and music on that continent during the past 300 years than all the tribes of Red Skins from Moostakmaguntic, Maine, to Tacoma, Washington. The reason for this is, and the cold fact remains, that the legends, poetry, decorative art and mythology of the Indians are only of value as a picturesque and grotesque background for the European-Mediterranean culture which now roars triumphantly over their unimportant graves and kitchen middens. A few, a very few, of their customs and discoveries have been assimilated. Any effort to copy their "art" will result in what is known in archaeology as an intrusive burial.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. McINTYRE.

New York, Sept. 27—Diary of a modern Pepys. Early to my dentist, who gave me gas and I began climbing a high tower with clothes and at the top started to walk a tightrope and fell and when I came to he had the forceps in his forceps and I never felt so [illegible] to me in life.

So to lunch and saw among the crowd Blanche Sweet, Conde Nast, Walter Howey, Adele Blood and Saro Sothern. Then to a matinee where a comedian rushed into a box and inquired: "Did I spend $60 here last night for wine?" and told he had, cried: "Thank God I thought I lost it!"

Home and came a letter from Richard Barthelmess, the droll harlequin, who has been in Hollywood these two years active and quite contented. Actor George White, the producer, came over to the theater and we talked of this and that until the clock struck 3. Then to bed.

It is a Magdalene tale told in the plaza cafe—the story of a grisette regenerated by a simple, but honest love. She had had the usual dazzling career of a stage beauty—jewels, splendor and the rapid descent.

Two years ago she wound up in a cheap room on the East Side tortured by craving for drink and drugs. Several times she went to a dock and looked at the river in fascination. Then one night she jumped and was fished out by a bargeman.

He took her to his home in Jersey and the son, a young man of twenty-two saw her and several days later shyly said: "You are the most beautiful woman I ever saw." So the romance budded. She sent a desperate letter to a former lover asking a loan of $160.

He sent it and she opened a roadside tea room. The place prospered, and the boy went to work for her. The other day they married—all of which reads like a cheap fiction tale. But I have the word of a man I know to be truthful.

And they whisper of a girl who left her movie star husband to frolic along the primrose path. In a year beauty faded out in an unwholesome bloat and she wrote him: "I see my mistake." A week later came a laconic reply: "I pity you. That is the best I can do."

It is difficult to live in the atmosphere of Broadway and not be convinced happiness there depends largely upon money. Its joys are bought—its wine, jewels, gaiety and ladies. Novelists and others who have written of Broadway are accused of stressing this cinema claptrap. It is considered "hokum." Yet the richest spender will while going the pace have only one regret—and that is he hasn't more money. Ordinary mortals wonder how a man can spend a half million along Broadway in a year, but it is done without much of a splash. A bank defaulter from Michigan came here recently with $7,000. He was a novice at high life yet he spent $2,000 in four nights and then found his gay butterfly had flown with the remaining $5,000.

The other side of Broadway is little known. It offers the best theatrical attractions in the world, pleasant cafes, fine shops, lights, music and the opera for those seeking respectable diversion. Thousands go there week after week for years and are untouched by the sordid glamour. The vices claim only the weak. As the famous Gondorf confidence twain used to put it: "Broadway is a tough spot for a sap with a bankroll."

Today's Worst Story.

BY WILL ROGERS

The worst joke I heard today was a thing that was in the paper. H. G. Wells, the great author has just written his new novel. It cut in about three or four books. Well it had so many different problems in it that some book reviewer wrote something like the following:

"Well's collection of books just out reminds me of an animal trainer in France that had nineteen kangaroos and he wanted to go to Germany to accept an engagement on the stage with them. But Germany had a big duty on kangaroos, and he couldn't afford to pay it, so he got a bright idea. He put the littlest one in the pouch of the next largest one, and then that one in the pouch of the next one, on up the line till he had the whole bunch packed into the nineteenth kangaroo. Everything was going fine. He was paying duty on just one kangaroo, when on account of the heat and delay they commenced to get restless in there and all at once this big kangaroo commenced exploding, and the air was full of kangaroos. They were popping out all over the place. She simply couldn't hold that many kangaroos in her pouch. And that is the solution of Wells' new book. He simply couldn't hold that many ideas in one pouch. They are popping out and running around all over the place." Beat that for a review of a book.—Copyright, 1926.

Twenty Years Ago.

This day was Thursday.

The Star reported a number of weddings the day before. Miss Ina Hammond and Mr. Ellis J. Lloyd were married by Rev. J. Tudor Lewis, Miss Nellie May Secoy and Mr. Ernest J. Gamble by Rev. C. E. Rowley and Miss Florence May Warner and Mr. Willis G. Patterson—the latter of Wooster—by Rev. J. H. Miller.

Miss Hane and Miss Alice Hane entertained at their home on east Center street in honor of Mrs. Ralph E. Westfall, of Columbus.

The commission appointed by Governor John M. Pattison to investigate the damage done by the overflowing of the Lewistown reservoir concluded its sessions, which had been held in the office of Hoke W. Donithen.

This was the big day of the county fair and a big crowd was in attendance.

William Fury, aged 100 years, a veteran of the Crimean war, in which he fought under the British flag, and of the civil war in which he fought under the Stars and Stripes, died at the Soldiers and Sailors' home in Sandusky. He was a well-known character about the city.

Miss Myrtle Irene Reber and Mr. John F. Hazen were married by Rev. D. H. Bailey.

Search was being made for the will of Josephus S. Goodnow, which had been drawn by William E. Scofield, but had not, up to that date, been located.

Q. Where was Virgil born? M. E.

A. Virgil was born at Brundisium, Italy. He was buried near Naples.

* * *

Q. Who was known as the "First Gentleman" of Europe? K. D. W.

A. This sobriquet was applied to King George IV. of England.

* * *

Q. How many capitals has Morocco? L. A.

A. It has four—Fez, Meknes, Marakesh and Rabat. The seat of the government is at Rabat, where the French resident general resides.

* * *

Q. Who is considered the most popular musician in the world today? R. C.

A. This position is usually accorded to Paderewski.

* * *

Q. Is the papershell pecan a special variety? J. S. K.

A. The term papershell has been extended in its application until it is now practically without significance. Properly speaking, the term papershell never referred to a particular variety; its correct application has been only with reference to varieties having thin shells.

* * *

Q. How did the word "starboard" come to be used for the righthand side of a vessel? A. J.

A. Starboard is from the Anglo-Saxon steorboard, steor meaning either rudder or steer and board, side. The reference is to the time when vessels were steered by a paddle or sweep worked from the right side.

* * *

Q. What will take the rust off tools? J. E.

A. Rust may be removed from tools by soaking them about twenty-four hours in kerosene.

* * *

Q. What year did Crittendon embark on his filibustering expedition to Cuba? A. R.

A. Crittendon, of Kentucky sailed from New Orleans on August 3, 1851, with Narcisco Lopez. They landed at Bahia Hondo, west of Havana on August 11, 1851, where Crittendon was left with 130 men while Lopez moved on Las Pozas with 323. Colonel Crittendon was captured while trying to escape to New Orleans after Lopez was tried and executed for high treason. Crittendon was shot at Havana with fifty others.

[illegible] Piggy Brazenose is a [illegible] who has a habit of get[illegible] trouble. It's probably be[illegible] mother named him Per[illegible]. He's really a good [illegible] doesn't take anything, [illegible] including the business [illegible] Heaven and Earth to his [illegible] That gentleman calls Piggy [illegible] office for a stern session. [illegible] appears that Piggy has done a [illegible] sensational high dive to save a man [illegible] drowning. The papers play it [illegible] Brazenose Senior hates to [illegible] name in the paper.

CHAPTER THREE

[illegible] High! It struck him [illegible] dive-foot dive o save a [illegible] pretty darn practical. [illegible] a little nerve, but that [illegible] way the newspapers [illegible] it up like a circus [illegible] always pounced upon [illegible] so did as if they were [illegible] to make his life miser[illegible] seeing his name in [illegible] he asked was to be let [illegible] didn't help it if things lay [illegible] actually put off hap[illegible] was around. The fact [illegible] were scarce he had [illegible] lively ingenuity in [illegible] he ignored. He was [illegible] of disinheritance did not [illegible] though he knew it to be [illegible] senior might play a [illegible] among his commercial and [illegible] ors, but he never bluffed [illegible] However, the occasion [illegible] Piggy was through. [illegible] saw anybody in trouble [illegible] a taxi whistle. If there [illegible] to be done, let George do [illegible] P. G. Brazenose was definitely [illegible] through.

Prof. Hy, even had they occurred to him, would have dismissed under his widely inclusive characterizations as bunk a series of hoary truisms to the effect that the proposals of mice and men are subject to revision by some disposing Power. He was a generation of avowed realists proclaiming that man was master of his fate and captain of his soul.

But introspection was not one of Piggy's traits and a fundamentally cheerful disposition made it impossible for him to nurse a grievance long. Therefore it was with a humorous grin that he put his head into his father's office half an hour after leaving it, to remark:

"Say, dad, I'm going to beat it. Four reporters from evening papers are laying for me in the outer office."

"All right, skip. And for God's sake don't talk for 'em!"

"Don't fret," replied his heir, and proceeded to a window at the back of the building, where he stepped out upon a fire escape and neatly disappeared.

That was the last that his father saw of Piggy Brazenose, and almost the last that was definitely known of his movements for many days.

It looked innocent enough at first; a little surprising, perhaps, but not in the least suggestive of headlines.

The man was older than Piggy, probably about thirty, and bore the outward indications of a gentleman. He carried an atmosphere of social sophistication, was well dressed, and when he spoke his voice was pleasantly modulated, his accent that of the Brahmin caste. He was standing beside the door of the ferry house—the Hudson tubes had not been completed then—eyeing the prospective passengers as they filtered through towards the turnstile. When his glance fell upon Piggy he straightened his shoulders, hesitated briefly, and advanced, smiling a little.

"I say," he began hurriedly, "this is awkward, but you look like a chap of one's own sort. I'm rather in a hole. I wonder if you'd help me out?"

"Sure." Piggy's hand went into his pocket.

"No, it isn't that." The man smiled again as he made a negative gesture. "Thanks just the same, but it's time, not ferry fare, that I'm short of. I'm pretty much a stranger here—don't know a soul I can ask to do this—and I'm in a devil of a fix. I'm supposed to meet a lady at the Grand Central at eleven fifty-one and something has just happened that makes it impossible for me to get there. You see, I can't reach her by phone and I'm afraid to trust the discretion of a messenger boy. Have you time—would you be willing—to find her and give her a message for me? It's unconventional, I know, but it's really very important."

"Why, sure," said Piggy. "I haven't a thing in the world to do. I'll go."

The man's anxious face cleared. "That's bully of you. I'm a million times obliged. She's a little bit of a thing with brown hair and she'll be dressed in brown. She's coming from Quebec, and if you miss her at the gate you'll find her at the Information Deck. She was to wait there for me and may—may be seriously inconvenienced if I don't get word to her."

"All right. I've got that," Piggy replied, as the other hesitated, frowning. "What's her name? And what shall I tell her?"

"Tell her I'm terribly sorry, but I've been called West unexpectedly on very important business. I've got to hustle like the deuce to catch my train. I'll be back within a few days. Tell her to let me know where she is, but on no account to take any action until she hears from me. Tell her that what she's planning is absolutely impossible and may have very serious consequences. She'll understand that. And I'm really awfully grateful to—Hey!" Breaking off his rapid speech, the man darted toward a cab that had brought some one to the ferry and was turning away.

But the other had already jumped into the moving vehicle and was waving his hand from the window as it whirled away.

"Well, I'll be jiggered!" remarked young Brazenose, staring after it. "That guy's rattled, all right. It looks like a wild-goose chase now, but I said I'd go."

Chuckling, he strolled toward the ferry, and at the appointed hour arrived at the Grand Central Station. When he ascertained that the lady's train was on time and the number of the track on which it would come in, he took a position near the gate through which passengers soon began to pour. This was before the old station had been demolished to make way for a larger one, and presently he saw her coming down the platform; a tiny modish brown figure with a well-poised head. Her features were indistinguishable behind a heavy veil, but as she came nearer he caught the gleam of dark eyes eagerly questing, as if in search of a familiar face. A porter beside her carried a handsome brown bag. Hat in hand, Piggy intercepted her.

Art is Ever Present

Art is your constant and subtle companion. It is always with you, but you must recognize it. It is in everything you do, but you must find it. It is in the world about you, but you must look for it. Nature is the greatest work of art. It is for you, but you and you alone have the power to make yourself enjoy it. Consciously or unconsciously it means your happiness. As is God's greatest gift to man: it was made to please the mind.

We have a booklet that will help you to understand art and the happiness it brings. It will show you the value of art. It will open new gates to contentment and recreation. Clip this coupon, enclose four cents in stamps for return postage and handling and we will mail the booklet to you.

Quicksands of Love

BY ADELE GARRISON

I SAW one thing very clearly. Dicky made his sneering comment upon my use of Hugh Grantland's Christian name. I must keep my own temper well in hand or there would be an explosion. Dicky was ripe for one of his unpleasant tantrums—I was familiar with the symptoms—and while at another time I might have been willing to share in the tempest, just now, with

Hugh Grantland's puzzling cablegram in my hand I felt that I must have every faculty free to consider the problem which it had brought. So I paid no attention whatever to his remark, but said musingly, as if he had not spoken:

"I hope this doesn't mean disturbing news for father. But I can't help it if it does. I must get hold of him at once."

I moved toward the telephone, but Dicky reached it before me.

"I'll get the number for you," he said, and I knew that it was wholly his habitual courtesy in little matters of this kind which had prompted the offer, but that there was also in the act a measure of apology for his boorishness concerning Hugh Grantland.

"Nothing wrong at all"

"Thank you." I said with real gratitude, for the struggle to get a telephone number is one of my pet aversions. Dicky was able to vent enough of his irritation upon the luckless Central's head, so that when he finally succeeded in getting my father upon the telephone his good humor was fairly well restored.

"Hello, Dad," he said, with the real affection he bears my father, showing in his tone. "No, no!" in quick assurance. "Nothing wrong at all. Madge and the boy are both perfectly all right, but—well—here she is; she can tell you better herself."

I walked to the telephone reluctantly, for with the re-reading of the cablegram I had experienced one of the queer little premonitions which sometimes come to me, and which I have learned to disregard. I felt that there lurked in this cablegram with odd code message something ominous for the father I loved so devotedly, all the more tenderly because I never had known certainly that he was living until I was a grown woman.

Madge's Father Is Perturbed

That my father's life held many chapters which I never had read, and which in all probability I never would peruse—were things which I long had known. He always had been a mysterious and fascinating figure, not only to me but every one of his acquaintances. Fresh in my memory was the picture of him as I had first seen him, the "Quester" of Broadway, wealthy, bronzed by foreign travel, with the glamor of mystery around him and the stealthily whispered gossip that he was forever seeking someone. Later it had developed that it was I whom he was seeking, and that I was the daughter whom he had last seen when I was four years old, and he had deserted my mother and me for another woman. Only the remembrance of my mother's deathbed command to forgive him and cherish him if he ever should come back to me had enabled me to give him forgiveness and later a daughter's love.

But I never had learned the source of the immense wealth which had been his, nor the reason for its subsequent loss. I did know, however, that for many years he had been high in the secret service of his country. Indeed, I had aided him, under Lillian's guidance, in some of his notable cases. That this message had something to do with that part of his life, even though he was practically retired, I did not doubt. With no preliminaries save an affectionate greeting, I read the cablegram to him.

Was it my imagination or at the end of my reading did I hear a faint groan?

MISS REGINA McNEIL

Europeans are not mistaken in saying American girls are the best looking of all, and in attributing this to the careful attention they give the details of their grooming. For the last touch of daintiness, thousands of American beauties, like Miss Regina McNeil, are using Black and White "Incense of Flowers" Face Powder is perfect—in texture, in fragrance and in color tones. It comes in attractive 50c boxes and is one of the most popular of the famous Black and White Beauty Creations.

Miss McNeil, who lives at 457 St. John's Place, Brooklyn, New York, declares, "I'm enthusiastic about Black and White 'Incense of Flowers' Face Powder because it tones in with my complexion better than any I've ever used. It is so fine, soft and fluffy it never cakes or looks pasty, but stays on smoothly for hours, and gives my skin the appearance of velvet."

CENSUS REVEALS ASTONISHING FACT

According to the 1920 Census, there are 8,549,511 women and girls employed in all trades in the United States. Nearly nine million women would make a vast army.

Napoleon said, "An army travels on its stomach." This woman's army travels on its general health. Probably there is scarcely a woman in it who has not forced herself to work when she was not able. In all sorts of weather and under trying conditions, like good soldiers, they stick to their posts.

Many women have learned that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps to keep them fit to work.—Adv.

How to stop BOILS!

There's only one way to stop boils. Stop the cause of boils! That's common sense—isn't it? All right. Boils thrive because the blood gets so weak in healthy, red cells that it can't throw off the impurities that get into the body. There's not enough rich, red blood to purify the system.

Now—S. S. S. builds back the blood to fighting strength. S. S. S. builds red-blood-cells—builds them by the millions! Boils dry up!

S. S. S. is the thing. Impurities that cause boils and other skin eruptions can't stand up against the rich, healthy, red blood that S. S. S. builds. That's all there is to it.

Stop boils with S. S. S. It's the way. Get it at any druggist. The larger bottle is more economical.

Miss Leta L. Love and F. E. Maugans Wed

Baskets of Madame Dreux roses and delphinium arranged with palms adorned the altar at Central Christian Church for the marriage Sunday morning of Miss Leta Leola Love and Fay E. Maugans, both of this city. The double ring service was read at 8 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. George E. Groves in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Love, parents of the bride and Master Billy Maugans, son of the bridegroom. Master Billy carried the rings in a rose. Mrs. Harry Williams played the Wedding March from "Lohengrin" as the couple took their place at the altar and accompanied Mrs. B. L. Wallace, who sang "I Love You Truly," during the service.

The bride was charming in an ensemble suit of duvetyne and French silk crepe in Venetian Blue with gray squirrel trimming and her hat was of gray velvet touched with Venetian Blue. She carried a bridal bouquet of roses showered with lilies of the valley and lace ribbon.

A wedding breakfast at the newly-furnished home of Mr. and Mrs. Maugans, 121 E. Pleasant-st, followed the ceremony and later the bride and bridegroom left on a motor tour through the south. They will be at home after Oct. 10. Mrs. Maugans wore a sport suit for traveling.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Love and is a graduate of Harding High School and Marion Business College. She completed her training at White Cross Training School for Nurses, Columbus, last year, and has been employed as Red Cross Nurse with the local chapter. Mr. Maugans is the son of Mrs. Minnie Maugans, Delaware, and is affiliated with the Marion County Lumber Co. He is a graduate of Ostrander High School and Ohio State University.

Oatmeal Cookies—Two cups brown sugar, one cup lard and butter mixed, two cups dry oats, one cup sweet milk, one cup raisins, two eggs, pinch of salt, one teaspoon soda, two teaspoons cinnamon. Flour to make soft dough. Drop by spoonful on buttered tin and bake in a rather hot oven.

Puffy Omelet—Separate yolks and whites of two eggs. Beat whites until stiff. Beat yolks until thick and lemon colored. Add two tablespoons milk or water, salt and pepper and pour into beaten whites. Fold together and bake slowly until brown on the bottom. Set in the oven to dry the top. Spread with jelly, fold and serve on a hot plate.

Pimento Cheese Sandwiches—Use either fresh or canned pimentoes. If fresh ones are used dip in boiling water a few minutes to soften. Put cheese through a food grinder or mash with a fork until creamy. Add as many pimentoes as desired and mix thoroughly. Spread on thin slices of bread.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

A Child's Laxative which Mothers Can Rely On

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he constantly advised mothers to give only a harmless laxative which would help to establish natural bowel "regularity."

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin mothers have a regulating laxative which they can depend upon whenever a child is constipated, bilious, feverish or sick from a cold, indigestion or sour stomach. All children love its pleasant taste.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself how perfectly it cleanses and regulates the bowels of infants and children.

BLACK AND GRAY DECLARED SMART

Black and gray, declares Joan Crawford, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer actress.

"I have just bought a street frock of black Elizabeth crepe, with a hip length bodice and skirt made entirely of panels.

"There is a wide berthe of the same material in gray. This is trimmed with silver buttons. The cuffs are also of the gray and the panels on the skirt are piped with the same color.

"Black is awfully smart," the actress concluded, "but it's often too harsh next to a youthful face. The gray has a wonderfully softening effect."

COUNTESS MUST ACCOUNT FOR COUNT

Countess Esterhazy.

The young Count Esterhazy, Jr., has allowed his extravagance to become so conspicuous that court action has been taken to make him the ward of his lovely wife. The Countess faces a difficult task in curbing the spending tendencies of her husband, whose wardrobe is never allowed to contain less than 3,000 suits.

Household Pests

If you are entertaining any unwelcome visitors such as ants, bedbugs, carpet beetles, cockroaches, fleas, flies, moths, rats, mice, or silverfish, this is the time to oust them from your premises.

They are disagreeable, a menace to health, and injurious to the house and furnishings. Eliminate them at once or they will overrun your property.

Government experts have studied the best methods of attack in the case of each pest. These are set forth in the housecleaning booklet which our Washington Bureau offers for distribution.

Clip, fill out, and mail the attached coupon. Enclose four cents in stamps to cover return postage and handling.

The Answer to the Burning Question

YOUNGSTOWN WOMAN HAD TO NEGLECT HOUSEWORK

Mrs. Kurtzweil Was In Exhausted Condition But Took Plant Juice Year Ago And Has Been Well And Strong Ever Since.

"A year ago I was in such a miserable rundown condition I was simply almost down and out, but three bottles of this wonderful Dillingham's Plant Juice medicine made me well and strong again and I have been that way ever since," declares Mrs. Fred Kurtzweil, of 629 Ridge Ave., and a resident of Youngstown the past twenty years.

"Before I began taking Plant Juice I had been in this exhausted physical condition for six months," continues Mrs. Kurtzweil.

"My liver must have been badly out of order for I had such dizzy spells that I was afraid to leave the house for fear that I might fall on the streets. Then, too, my digestion must have been no good for nights I would have terrible hot flashes all over my body and would break out in a cold prespiration. I was in such wretched condition I just had to neglect my housework.

"But, fortunately, I tried Plant Juice and by the time I finished my first bottle all my troubles stopped as if almost by magic. And three bottles of this grand herbal medicine just made me well and strong in every way.

"I used to have to take strong laxatives for constipation, too, but now my bowels are as regular as clockwork and I never feel a trace of any of my old troubles. I will always feel indebted to Plant Juice and just can't say enough for this medicine."

CENTRAL OHIO DENTISTS TO MEET IN KENTON

Dr. Frank Burger Making Arrangements for One Day Convention Oct. 6

Kenton, Sept. 27—Kenton has been selected as the one day convention of the Central Ohio Dental society to be held October 6. More than one hundred dentists from the cities and counties comprising the organization will attend.

Sessions are to be conducted in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce in the morning and afternoon with a luncheon at noon. Kenton dentists are to act as hosts and the arrangements for the gathering are under way under the general supervision of Dr. Frank Burger. The luncheon is being arranged by Dr. J. H. Bennett of Mansfield.

It is planned to have prominent dentists from the state speak and to conduct clinics.

KENTON REDS BEAT MARYSVILLE TEAM

Plan Series To Determine Championship of Hardin And Logan Counties

Kenton, Sept. 27—Defeating the Marysville legion men 6 to 3 in a hard fought game Sunday at Lake Idlewild park, the Kenton Reds advanced to second place in the Heart-of-Ohio league. It was the final game of the league season.

In the opening innings the visitors pushed Ray Ferner, crack twirler, for three safe bingles and scored three runs which the Reds were able to secure but one less tally.

The count remained 3 to 1 until the sixth when the locals rallied batting the Marysville hurler all over the lot. They pushed across five runs in this frame and succeeded in holding the Union county lads scoreless.

One of the outstanding features of the tilt was the pitching of Ferner.

With the close of the league season, Bert McFarland, manager, announced that a game series would likely be arranged between Zanesfield, champions of Logan county, Nigger Island and the Reds, to determine the championship of both Logan and Hardin counties.

Prospect Woman Passenger on Florida Refugee Train

Prospect, Sept. 27—Mrs. Mildred Carpenter Howell of Hollywood, Fla., arrived here Saturday about noon, to remain with her mother and sister, Mrs. Harriet Carpenter and Mrs. Vinna Scharf.

Mrs. Howell left Hollywood Wednesday morning on the first refugee train out of that city; seven hundred and fifty people were on this train; women and children and a few aged and infirm men, as every man who was able to work was compelled to stay and help with the work of clearing the debris and the rebuilding.

The entire trip was made by Mrs. Howell in a day coach, as only the aged or injured could have the accommodations of the sleeper. The Red Cross financed the entire trip, fares and eats, for every one. Milk and needed clothing were provided for babies and children while on the train and during a stop at Jacksonville, busses were provided to take every one to restaurants for their meals and to other trains for the continuance of their journey.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell and their brother-in-law, Mr. Gustav Scharf of Prospect, who has been there working since last fall, crawled on their hands and knees two hundred yards, during the storm, from their home to a neighbor's cement garage, where twenty people came for safety, and while there saw a large house picked up by the wind and blown against their house, completely destroying both houses. Their close neighbors remained in their house, and were all killed.

ASHLEY FRESHMEN ARE ENTERTAINED

Sophomore Class Acts As Host To 36 First Year Students

Ashley, Sept. 27—The first large social affair of the school year was held, Friday night at the Ashley school house, when the sophomore class entertained with a party, honoring the new freshman class.

The freshman class was given a unique and thorough initiation, one feature of which was making each "freshey" kiss the black axe which is the official sophomore weapon used as a disciplinarian measure upon unruly freshmen.

The program included toasts and entertainment by the following: Miss Florence Less, Cecil Sherwood, Douglas McKay, Gordan Crowl, Mildred Baker, Inez Reely, Charles Lee. Following the supper an informal social time was enjoyed with games.

Those present were the 36 freshmen, 30 sophomores and the teachers of the high school and the grades.

FOUR YOUTHS TAKE "FREE" RIDE

Kenton, Sept. 27—While frantic parents were searching for their sons who had failed to appear at the supper table, and the owner of a Sedan pondered the disappearance of his car parked 20 minutes before, four youths were having the time of their lives touring and enjoying the scenery in the western part of the state.

Not realizing the seriousness of their offense, the juveniles took the sedan belonging to Ferd Behrens, while it was parked along Buckeye-st in Ada. The car was driven to the Indiana line when the gas supply gave out. Lacking sufficient funds with which to purchase gas for the return trip, the wanderers abandoned the machine and started "hooling" it back home.

Upon their return they went into "executive" session with their parents in the woodshed and then turned over to the Ada police. After the car owner did not file charges, the four boys were released.

ANNUAL HOMECOMING AT OHIO NORTHERN OCT. 16

Football Squad to Meet Muskingum as Feature Attraction of Day

Kenton, Sept. 27—Preliminary plans are being completed by officials of Ohio Northern University, Ada, and the student body, for the school's annual homecoming which this year will be held on October 16.

Former students and graduates of the university will gather on this day from all parts of the state.

An elaborate program, featuring the football game with Muskingum college, will be presented for the entertainment of the homecomers, it is decided. There will also be stunts, parades, reunions, sport events, and prizes for the best decorated fraternity houses.

Decision to change the homecoming from October 23, when Wesleyan of Delaware plays Northern, to October 16, was reached by the committee in charge when it was shown that it would be impossible to accommodate the combined crowd the two big events would attract.

GALION HIGH WINS FROM ASHLAND TEAM

Orange and Blue Squad Comes to Marion Next Week-End

Galion, Sept. 27—The Galion High School football team won its first league football contest by defeating the Ashland High eleven Saturday by a score of 6-0. The game was a fast one throughout. The touchdown was made in the second quarter by Capt. Cutchall.

This victory is the second in a row for the Galion team, neither opponent being able to cross the orange and blue goal line.

Much punting took place in order to play safe from fumbles. The backfield consisting of J. Young, D. Kersh, and Capt. Cutchall all played great games, hitting the line hard and making large gains on end runs. The line, Hershner and Zinn at the ends, stopped many runs, while Dribig, Everly, Wiener, McClure, Cohen, halted the Ashland line plungers and off tackles plays.

Next week the Galion squad will journey to Marion to play their second league game of the season.

REPUBLICANS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE TRUE TO TRADITION

When Gov. John G. Winant of New Hampshire failed to win renomination in the recent gubernatorial primaries in that state the Republicans were merely holding to a tradition. Not since 1878, when the two-year term for governor was adopted, has the state sent a governor back for the second term. Huntley N. Spaulding above, was the G. O. P. choice in the recent primaries.

PRIESTS FROM ALL OVER OHIO AT CEREMONY

Rev. John Vogel, S. T. L., Formerly of Upper Sandusky, Sets Forth Catholic Ideal

Upper Sandusky, Sept. 27—Sunday was a day of significance for the members of St. Peter's Catholic parish as it marked the laying of the cornerstone of the new $60,000 Parochial school.

Before an assembly of over a thousand people the stone was set in place at three o'clock Sunday afternoon by the Rt. Rev. Samuel Alphonsus Stritch D. D., Bishop of Toledo. A copper box placed inside the stone contained the names of the President of the United States, the Governor of Ohio, mayor of Upper Sandusky, Bishop of Toledo, pastor of St. Peter's church, architect of the proposed building, names of the finance committee of the building, and an attestation.

Rev. John Vogel, S. T. L., a former Upper Sandusky man, delivered the address in which he set forth the Catholic Ideal, that there is no true living except with God therefore that there is no true education without God.

The new building, when finished, will mark the culmination of many years of effort. Just 60 years ago, through the efforts of twelve Catholic families of the community, the first Parochial school was started in a small building on W. Guthrie-st. A church was later built which was used as a school. The building at the corner of Eighth and Findlay-sts which has recently been dismantled to make room for the new structure has been used for a school for the past 25 years. It was formerly a dwelling house and was inadequate for the present needs.

The new building is to be a two-story structure of red brick and when completed will have a main building 43 ft. by 84 ft. and an adjoining section 22½ ft. by 60 ft. The main building will comprise four large class rooms, while in the lean to will be the library room, kitchen, boiler room and toilets.

Eight grades will be taught. The present enrollment of the school is 130.

It is thought that the school will be finished by the first of January, School is now being held in the rooms above the Citizen's Bank, in the K. of C. Hall.

The following priests assisted in the ceremonies Sunday: Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis E. Malone, D. D. J. C. D., Chancellor of Toledo; Rev. Francis A. Terwood, Bellevue; Very Rev. Francis L. Hulgen, dean of Tiffin; Rev. John Vogel, S. T. L., of Toledo; Rev. Leo L. Reinartz, of Bucyrus; Rev. Charles A. Renck, of Crestline; Rev. Augustine H. Schreiner, of Galion; Rev. Albert A. Fute, of Shelby; Rev. Ambrose Weber, of Fostoria; Rev. Robert C. O'Conner, assistant of Fostoria; Rev. John Keller, of Kirby; Rev. Vitus Schuette, C. P. P. S., New Riegel; Rev. Lawrence Martin, O. M. C., of Carey; Rev. Carl T. Roth, of North Auburn, Crawford county; Rev. J. J. Kunnert, of New Washington; Rev. G. H. Rielten, of Toledo; Rev. Joseph J. Williams, of Adrian and Rev. John R. Forre, of Upper Sandusky.

Athletics Rally in Eight and Win Akron Game, 6-4

Harding Loses Opening Game at Columbus Central

Main Pitches "Best-Ever" and Marion Walks Away With Third Series Game

Brashear's Home-Run Over Left Field Fence Starts Locals in Fourth; Pricey Puts Game on Ice by Scoring Two with Hot Three-Bagger

BY PAT MURPHY

Main was in shape, Marion's hitters had their eye on the ball, Ewing was in Philadelphia, Eitselman was playing football, it was a cold day. There, in a nutshell, is the story of the third and deciding game between the Swinehart Tires of Akron and the Marion Athletics. The score was Marion 6, Akron 4.

Main was in superb shape and more than got revenge for the miserable game he pitched against the same team a week ago. The fact that there were six errors behind Main shows that the team was playing ball and that Main was pitching one of his good games. He yielded five hits and four bases on balls, while his opponent, Miller, said to be the property of the Washington Senators, was granting ten hits and nine free tickets to first. Seven Akron runners were left on base, while eight local batters started around the circuit but did not complete the trip.

In the early stages of the game it looked like the rubber workers were going to repeat their performance of last Sunday and take the locals into camp. In the first inning they went out quickly. Tidyman hit a ball at Joe Conray for the first out. Dairymple popped one to Donaldson and was thrown out at first. Harris, hero of a week ago, walked, but was left on first when Rudy lifted a fly to Rowan.

In Marion's half the pitcher threw out Rowan, Donaldson lifted a two bagger, but was left when Bacon struck out and Price flied to left.

Akron Scores Early

In the third Akron pushed over two runs. Miller, first up, struck out. Tidyman hit a two-bagger to center, Dairymple got on when Donaldson fumbled his hit. Harris went out, Donaldson to Conroy. Rudy hit to right, scoring Tidyman and Dairymple. Leonard struck out.

In her half of the third, Marion tried to even up, but fell down. Rowan flied to center. Donaldson went out, third to first. Bacon hit a screaming two-bagger to center but was stranded when Price hit to the second baseman for an easy out at first.

Akron increased her lead to four to nothing in the fourth. Herwick, first up, walked, and was sacrificed to second by Corl. He scored on Mercer's two-bagger to center. Miller flied to right, and Mercer scored on Tidyman's hit to center. Dairymple ended the inning with a fly to Price.

Brashear Helps with Homer

Marion came to bat in the fourth four runs behind. Conroy went out, short to first. Reese walked. Dougherty tried to sacrifice Reese to second but was safe when the shortstop chose to catch Reese at second. Dick Brashear then stepped up and picked one to his liking. He lifted the ball over the fence. Tommy Dougherty trotted in ahead of him. Main walked, but Rowan struck out to end the inning.

Marion tied the score in the sixth. Conroy got a hit to left, but was caught in a double play when Reese hit a hot one at Dairymple. Dougherty walked. Brashear hit a clean single to right. Buckland was put in to run for Dick, who is suffering with a bad leg. With two on, Main proved that the day of miracles has not passed by sizzling a hot one past second which scored Dougherty and Buckland. Rowan and Donaldson walked. Bacon, who has saved so many games in just such pinches as this, tried hard, but the pitcher handled his fast grounder and got him at first.

The game was won in the eighth by a characteristic Marion rally. Main, first up, walked. Rowan, with two strikes and three balls, was hit on the arm by one of Miller's fast ones. The game was delayed for some time at this point while Miller argued with Umpire Macken. He tried to talk Macken into a strikeout, claiming that Rowan had struck at the ball. The argument grew so heated that Macken finally called Manager Elliott of the Akron team and threatened to put Miller out of the game. When play was resumed, Miller walked Bacon. Glen Price then proceeded to win the game when he put a hot one across first base which was lost in the deep grass. Before the ball was found, Rowan and Bacon had scored and Price was perched on third. Conroy then struck out to end the inning.

Akron did not come close in her ninth inning. After two were out, Dairymple walked, but Harris ended the game when he grounded to Donaldson, who caught him at first for the third out.

Buckland was out in uniform, but has not sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to get into the game. He got a good hand from his many friends in the stands when he scored in the fifth while running for Brashear. Buck took this occasion to show that his illness had not greatly slowed him up by stealing second on the first ball pitched after he took Dick's place on first.

JACK RECOVERS; NOT SO ANXIOUS TO MEET TUNNEY

Thinking It Over Now Before Taking Definite Action

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Sept. 27—Jack Dempsey may have popped off glibly about wanting another shot with Gene Tunney, but today the unfrocked champion obviously was wavering on the idea and his boy friend, Jack Kearns, was there to tell him that it was a bad one because he was all washed up as a fighter, anyhow.

Kearns aired his views from a local hotel and they were to the general effect that Tunney "could take" the man who had been king in the next fight or in the next hundred.

As for Dempsey, he intimated in a long distance conversation with the writer that, after due consideration of Thursday's debacle he may have had a great plenty.

"Do you still feel that you would like to come back?" he was asked.

"Well, I don't know," came the rather dubious reply.

"I'll have to think it over before committing myself. I'll be back in New York on Tuesday and maybe I'll have a good story to give you then."

These remarks hardly indicate that the ex-champion is rather champing at the well known bit, as he has been pictured as doing. In fact, they indicate that the germ of an intelligent idea may have come to the great man during his post-battle moments of pensive repose.

DETROITS AND REDS HAVE BEST HITTERS

New York, Sept. 27—Heinie Manush, Detroit's slugging outfielder, has won the 1926 batting crown in the American League. By getting six hits yesterday, Manush finished the season with a mark of .380, eight points ahead of Babe Ruth.

"Bubbles" Hargrave, Cincinnati catcher, appears to have won the National League honors with a percentage of .353, although Cy Williams, of the Phillies, has an outside chance of overtaking him.

OFFICIALS ARE ORGANIZING CLUB

Ten Charter Members Elect Officers for Weekly Meetings

Members of the Marion Officials Association will hold their weekly meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight above the employment office of the Marion Steam Shovel Company, W. Center-st.

Officers will be elected and plans will be outlined by Promoter Francis Bacon, a local Ohio Conference official, for a winter program. Ten charter members will help organize the club.

An invitation is extended the public to attend tonight's meeting. Anyone interested in sports should attend, especially those interested in the major sports. Coaches, scouts and players are invited as well as men and women fans.

The purpose of organizing the Marion Association is to give local officials an opportunity to become affiliated with organized work. A general shortage of good athletic officials is and has been apparent for a number of years. Associations such as the one being organized in this city prove very beneficial and operate successfully.

Before becoming affiliated with the Marion Steam Shovel Company in this city Mr. Bacon organized Dayton's Officials Association which is functioning today in such a manner that it is recognized as one of Ohio's best. Many of Dayton Association's members are employed regularly and some have graduated into the Ohio Officials Association and other officials organizations.

CLEV'LAND STOPS GRANGE'S TEAM

Doc Elliott Stars Before 22,000 Cleveland Football Fans

Cleveland, Sept. 27—The new American Professional Football League's local magnates were counting the profits today from an auspicious beginning in which 22,000 cash customers whirled the clicking turnstiles right merrily to see the Cleveland Panthers down the redoubtable Red Grange and his New York Yankees, 10 to 0.

Doc Elliott, a Panther halfback, stole the ghostly galloper's stuff by starring throughout on defense and counting with two drop-kicked goals, while the Panthers had the Wheaton ice man completely stopped. His longest run was a 20 yard dash returning a punt.

JOHNSTONE WINS SHOVEL COMPANY TENNIS TROPHY

Bests White in Fast Play; Presentation by King

Johnstone is the proud possessor of the handsome and much coveted King-Huber 1926 tennis cup today as a result of winning the Marion Steam Shovel Company's singles championship Sunday from White in one of the most beautiful sets witnessed in this city the last five years, according to reports made this morning by followers of the net game. Mr. Johnstone was presented the company's cup by General Manager C. B. King, who with Mr. Huber has watched this year's tournament with considerable interest.

Johnstone and White, both clever players, went into the final series knowing that only one could win. For this very reason they both opened up and the result was to the delight of the many spectators a match that is very seldom seen outside of professional circles.

Five sets were necessary to decide the winner and there was plenty of action all the time.

The championship scores follow: Johnstone winning, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2, 0-6, 6-3.

BOYD AND HOYNE LOSE SEMI-FINALS

Semifinal play Saturday was also reported very good.

White defeated Boyd, 6-1 and 6-2. Hoyne was eliminate in the semi-finals by Johnstone, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4 in more fast play.

BIG TEN TEAMS WORKING HARDER

Intensive Training Starts for Opening of Season Saturday

Chicago, Sept. 27—Big Ten Conference elevens plunged into a week's intensive practice today, preparing for the opening of the season Saturday.

Michigan, 1925 champions, unfolds the moleskins Saturday in a clash with Oklahoma A. and M. at Ann Arbor; Chicago plays an intersectional tilt with Florida at Stagg Field; Purdue meets the Navy in the East; Wisconsin plays Cornell College of Iowa at Madison.

Illinois, groaning without its "Red" Grange, will play at home against Coe; Northwestern will have a home game against South Dakota; Minnesota plays North Dakota at Minneapolis; Iowa will clash with Colorado Teachers eleven at Iowa City; Indiana will meet De Pauw at Bloomington, and Ohio plays Wittenburg at Columbus.

Interest in the Minnesota, Michigan and Purdue games is keenest. Minnesota, nursing along a team calculated strong enough to battle it out for the conference title, will be closely watched, while the mid-west is turning its eyes to the Navy this fall because of the Army-Navy tilt scheduled here in November.

Yost, at Ann Arbor, is being scouted to discover a reported weakness in his line. None of the conference teams will meet each other in the season's opening clashes and except for the Purdue-Navy game, the contests are viewed by coaches as conditioning tilts.

The Athletics polished off Cleveland twice, 8 to 5, and 2 to 0, and can finish in second place by beating Cleveland today and winning three straight frmo Washington.

COLUMBUS CITY CHAMPS ARE NEXT

Next Sunday, the Morrey Jewelers, winners of the Capital City League championship in Columbus, will meet the Athletics at Lincoln Park. This game will be called at 2:30 o'clock. The Columbus jewelry outfit won the recent elimination series in the Statehouse town. A new outfielder from the International League will be in a Marion uniform and will probably start the game against the visitors.

SERIES TO OPEN IN NEW YORK CITY

Yanks Get Two Games; Others Go to St. Louis

New York, Sept. 27—New York today was eagerly awaiting the arrival of the Cardinals and Yankees, some time before nightfall.

Both of the world series contenders being due here to put in their final training for the opening game, which will start in the Yankee Stadium Saturday. The Cards were understood to have entrained for New York immediately after their last game in Cincinnati yesterday, while the Yanks left St. Louis last night and are due here not later than this evening.

A capacity crowd of slightly less than 63,000 will view the series inaugural, according to present indications the local headquarters being besieged for tickets. Applications have run far ahead of schedule, even before the Yanks clinched their pennant in St. Louis on Saturday.

The first two games of the series will be played in New York. The next three games will be played in St. Louis. If either team should win four of the five games, the world championship would then be decided, otherwise the other two additional games will be played in New York.

25,000 SEATS GO ON SALE

Mailing of reserved seats upon orders will begin within 24 hours. These call for 25,000 seats at $5.50 and $6.60 for each game to be played in New York. On the morning of each game, general admission seats to the number of 18,000 at $3.30 and bleached seats numbering about 20,000 will be thrown open to the public. The bleacher sections will be disposed of at $1.10 a ticket.

It will be New York's first series since 1924 and the first for St. Louis since time immemorial. Therefore interest in the games, heightened by the promised exchange of hot shots between Rogers Hornsby and Babe Ruth, had just about reached fever heat today.

With the pennant safely tucked away, the Yankees fossed off two games to the Browns, six to one and six to two. The first game took an hour and twelve minutes and the nightcap only 55 minutes.

The Reds, beaten for the pennant, played like champions in defeating the Cardinals, 2 to 1.

Washington's chances of finishing in the money faded when the Senators lost to the White Sox, 7 to 4.

The Giants wound up the season in blaze of glory, beating the Phils twice, 3 to 2 and 3 to 2.

Brooklyn also beat the Cubs two times, 3 to 1, and 6 to 2.

Pirates Win on Safety After Being Held on Half Yard Line by Stone Wall

Capital Eleven Strong in Air, but Only Make Three First Downs; Captain Born Gets Stuck Behind Goal and Game Skids Away

BY CHARLES HARRISON
(Sports Editor)

HARDING HIGH lost their first football game by a score of 2 to 0 Saturday to Central High at Columbus. Columbus Central scored their safety in the second quarter when Captain Born, fullback, got stuck in the mud while attempting to get the oval away from the goal. He was stopped by Morlan, the Columbus Pirates' right pivot man.

The score in no way indicates the stronger of the two teams. Neither does it reflect in any way the ability of the local squad which is being coached this season by Coaches Paul Sprout and Allen Compton.

Harding played a great game on defense and apparently did not attempt to do anything on the offense on account of the very dangerous field. Only a few seconds before the safety was scored, Columbus was easily held on the half-yard line by Harding. Columbus took their first down and ten to go on Harding's five-yard line and couldn't come close to crossing the six-point line. A good portion of the game was played in Harding's territory and Columbus only made three first downs. Harding did not make one first down.

Conditions for the game were most unfavorable. It was even disagreeable for the crowd, estimated at 754 students and some fans from Marion.

The field, used for the first time, was a swamp mossed here and there with floating grass which soon disappeared. The crowd made its way to and from the stands on rafts and other pieces of timber picked from the scaffolding used in building the new $2,500,000 Central High School building which decorates the banks of the Scioto River on a 65 acre tract in the very heart of Columbus. More than 2,000 students are enrolled. The winners had their band in the stand and no doubt that is what helped them win because they never earned their victory. The ladies in the crowd wearing shadow dresses and rolled stockings seemed to enjoy the 45 mile an hour gale which brought everything but snow from the northwest. The wind swept the field from one end to the other at such speed that it was impossible to hear the referee's whistle a greater part of the time. True enough the officials did not use their whistle often. Piling was almost continuous and some clipping was used to advantage by the winners; but so much for that we were not paid to help officials. Many of the fans left the field at the half and found shelter from the rain and storm near the big new Central High building. Only one man appeared at the field in boots and he showed further good judgment by leaving long before the game was over.

First Quarter

Captain Dud Stock chose to receive for Columbus and gave Harding High the goal facing the invigorating wind. Paul received for Columbus on the 25 yard line and returned 5. Harding pushed Columbus back two yards on the very first play and the crowd started to jump and yell. Perrill punted 55 yards for Columbus with the wind to Captain Born who received on Harding's 14 yard line and returned 15 yards giving Harding the ball on their 30 yard mark. He tried to gain Harding punted and the ball went out of bounds on Marion's 40 yard stripe. Columbus made four yards in four downs and lost the ball on the 20 yard zone. Harding kicked and Paul returned from the 40 to 44 yard line.

Houghton Nearly Scores

Swede Perrell, quarter, broke around end on the next play and placed the bubble on Marion's nine yard line before he was stopped by Fullback Carson. That little trick netted 27 yards for Columbus and placed the ball within scoring distance. Three line plunges netted exactly three yards for Columbus. Marion's wall held like reinforced concrete. Columbus drop-kicked and the ball took to the water like a duck.

Duck Stock Missed

Harding gained two yards on the first play and not wishing to take any chances Captain Born punted to Carson on Marion's 40 yard white ribbon as the quarter ended.

Second Period

Coach D. R. Park told his Central High boys some of the few things they didn't know about footbal on a muddy field before the second quarter started and they played like a different team. So did Harding.

Passing was started by Columbus on Marion's 40 yard line and two snappy passes with the dry ball and a nice plunge gave Columbus the oval on Harding's five yard line. Both passes were made by Quarter Perrill to left end Captain Stock, the first netting 18 yards and the other 15 yards. Two yards in between were gained by Full-

A Story of Boyhood Adventures

BY JUDD MORTIMER LEWIS

...l week last week. ... and every ... would of thought ... day she bore down ... was washing my face ... for Sunday school. ... play a joke on ... me to get the water ... going to put some ... in the water to make ... And then I happened ... that we would get some ... before it began to ... I didn't put any ... some out and got ... and looked in the ... can and all of my ... marbles, were still ... looked bigger and ...

... lunch about it this ... I was milking the cow. ... Bag of Tripe asted me if ... a box of lie and some- ... and he would show me ... when I went into feed ... out the can of lie and ... a paper bag and two ... pies, and he dumped ... the alley and washed ... corn pail and wiped ... old rag my father has ... down with, and then ... sugar in the lie can and ... his shirt and said to ... past his house.

The baby was setting on the Lost Bag of Tripe's porch and its mother was hanging some baby things up on the line in the yard and she asted him what he was back for and he said he forgot a book, and when he went past his kid brother he put the lie can on the floor between his legs and stuck his hand in the sugar, and the kid began to eat and the Lost Bag of Tripe went in the house, and pretty soon he hollered, "Maw, I can't find my book!" And his mother looked mad and hollered, "I s'pose I'll have to come and find it for you!" And she went up the steps and was giving the baby a look as she went past, and all at once she picked up the lie can and looked at it, and then she screamed for the Lost Bag of Tripe to run for a doctor; and she held the baby upside down and told him to spit it all out, and he began to cry, and the Lost Bag of Tripe came out and said, "Aw, where did he get my can of sugar? I had that to put on my bread at lunch!"

When we left she was rocking back and forth and crying with the baby in her lap, and when we got around the corner we all took a punch at the Lost Bag of Tripe. It is a dirty crook that will scare his own mother. I could not tell my folks about it, for my mother would miss our can of lie, and then I would get it.

Daily Bedtime Story

BY HOWARD GARIS

Uncle Wiggily and His Friends

"...e's only one way to catch ... I tell you!" barked the ... Wolf.

"And ... way is that?" asked the other old ...

"We must play a trick on him—get ... to some place where he can't get ... and then we'll have him," snapped the Fox.

The two were talking in the den of the Wolf on the edge of the deep, dark, dismal forest, not far from Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow.

"Perhaps you know of some place where we could get that rabbit so he couldn't get out," went on the Wolf. "And you may know how to trick him. As for me—I don't. I've tried too many times and each time I have failed."

"Leave it to me," snarled the Fox. "A little way back in the woods is a rocky cave. It has a narrow doorway leading into it and only a little window in the rocky wall at the back. A window so small that Uncle Wiggily can never crawl out."

"But how can you get him into the cave," asked the Wolf. "And once you get him in, how can you keep him from jumping out of the front door, which must be large enough for him to come in by."

"Yes," admitted the Fox, "the front door is large enough. This is how I will do it. I will put a sign in front of the cave in the rocks, and the sign will say: 'Come in here.' I will sign to it the name of Mr. Twistytail, the pig gentleman.

"Uncle Wiggily and the gentleman pig are great friends," went on the Fox. "Once the rabbit has gone in the cave to visit his friend, as he thinks, you and I will be hiding in the bushes. We will roll a big rock in front of the door and the rabbit can't get out."

"But, maybe his friend, Mr. Twistytail, who is in the cave will help him push the stone away," growled the Wolf.

"Nonsense!" laughed the Fox, "Don't you understand? There will be no pig in the cave—the sign will say so, but he won't really be there. It will be a good trick."

"It sounds so, if you ask me!" howled the Wolf. So the two bad chaps printed the sign, saying Mr. Twistytail was in the cave, and inviting Uncle Wiggily to enter. Then the Fox and Wolf waited.

"Oh ho!" whistled Uncle Wiggily hopping along near the cave. And when he saw the sign he said: "So my friend Mr. Twistytail the pig is in there; is he? Nice and cool he is, to be sure. I'll go in and see him!"

The trick is working!" whispered the Fox to the Wolf.

"It seems to be!" chuckled the other bad chap, hiding in the bushes. "Get ready to roll the rock."

No sooner was Uncle Wiggily inside the cave, looking for Mr. Twistytail, who of course wasn't there, than "Bang!" the rock rolled in front, blocking the doorway so the bunny couldn't get out.

"Oh, I'm caught! This was a trick! I might have known!" sadly cried Uncle Wiggily when he saw what had happened. "But maybe I can jump out of the back window," he added. Though when he saw how small the rocky window was, he knew he could never get out.

But growing just outside the cave was a bush with purple berries on it. Poke berries they were, and as soon as the bunny saw them he knew what he could do.

"Poke berries are ink!" cried Mr. Longears. "I can reach out, pick some of the berries, smash them in a hole on the rocky floor of this cave and the juice will make purple ink. With the ink I will write a note on my handkerchief as a piece of paper. I will write to the police and ask them to come and get me out of here. It's lucky I found the ink berries, for I have no fountain pen."

Making some ink of the purple berries, Uncle Wiggily wrote with a stick on his handkerchief a message asking for help. While he was writing it the Fox and Wolf, laughing gleefully, went to call their friends to come and help nibble the rabbit's ears.

Uncle Wiggily tossed his ink-berry message out of the cave window where it fell on the ground and was found by a little bird. The bird took the handkerchief to the Police Dog, who ran to the cave, got the bunny out in time and let him go home. And, when the Fox and Wolf came back, the cave was empty. And, it served them right. But if the looking glass doesn't try to see what is inside the candy box I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the sun umbrella.

"The Man Without A Country"—

As described in that memorable patriotic story by Edward Everett Hale, was furnished by our government with a place to live in the form of a battleship cabin.

But "The Man Without a HOME"—that's a very true story of folks in this very community today.

They may have moved to this city only recently; they may be living in inconvenient quarters waiting for an opportunity to move to more suitable rooms, houses or apartments—

But they will SURELY find the property they desire to rent listed among Star Classified Rental Ads on these pages today!

HERE'S MORE ABOUT
HARDING HI GAME

Paul hit the line for three yards and put the ball on Harding's two yard line just in time to allow Fullback Carson to fumble on the next play. Carson was peeved again because he couldn't take it over. He carried the ball on the very next play and was skidded back one yard. He was peeved again, only more so. Carson bit short of right end and skidded within one-half yard of the six point line. Harding High took the ball and on the second play W. Merchant fumbled behind the goal where he was downed for a touchback, the only score of the game, for Columbus.

Harding kicked from the 20 yard line to the 44. Columbus received and was stopped in their tracks. A pass was intercepted by Harding and Tuttle broke away for 15 yards down the right side of the field right in front of the Columbus crowd before he was stopped by Smith. Tuttle hit the line for five yards and Harding's pass on the next play was intercepted by Perrill for Columbus who returned 12 yards giving Central High the ball on Harding's 48 yard mark. Perrill heaved a long pass to Morlan at right end and Columbus gained another 13 yards. Morlan, apparently a beginner did not wish to get submerged and fumbled the ball when tackled. Columbus recovered on the 45 yard line after several others had failed to bring the much coveted oval out of the mire.

Second Half

Harding had the wind with them and everyone felt confident that they would score. Marion kicked to Columbus. Central lost ground on three downs and was forced to kick. Harding received on their 30-yard line and after gaining about eight and one-half yards they chose to kick again and W. Merchant booted the ball a distance of 48 yards to Columbus' eight yard line where it appeared to be a fairly good chance for the locals to score. Columbus kicked and didn't take one chance. Harding received on Columbus' 20 yard line when the heavy wet ball failed to float as well in the air as the water and mud. Harding attempted a place-kick; but the wet slippery ball went wild and low. Columbus kicked to the 50 yard line as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter

Harding returned the kick and gave Columbus the ball on their 37 yard line and Carson returned to the middle of the field. A fumble on their first play cost Columbus 10 yards and they kicked down with the wind again to Harding's 12 yard line. In fresh unworn territory the line plays worked fairly well. Marion did not kick until the fourth down and then only booted the oval to the 20 yard line. Play continued back and fourth between Harding's 15 and 35 yard lines but Columbus never threatened to score. The game was won by an unearned two points. And, by all appearances made in Saturday's game Columbus Central will have to improve their team and field considerably before they play their dedication game with Columbus North High. Central rests this week and will watch Ohio State play. The dedication game is scheduled for one week from Saturday.

Harding High uninjured and working like veterans in midseason form, will continue this week preparatory for their first home game with Galion Saturday. The Marion-Galion game will be a North Central Ohio League game.

Lineup and summary:

Central	0	2	0	0	—2

Officials: Referee, Don Wiper, Ohio State. Umpire, Carl Smith, Ohio State. Head Linesman, Kennard Erk, Ohio State. Scorer, Harrison.

After holding Columbus Central for downs on their half yard line Saturday Harding lost their first game 2 to 0 on a safety. Not bad for a start.

Columbus North dedicated Mansfield's new high school stadium with a 7 to 6 victory. The score should have been tied.

Galion ran away with Ashland 6 to 0 in the first league contest at Galion.

Nig Yetzer made a 70 yard run for touchdown against Oberlin and Shelby won their opener 19 to 6 at the college town.

Delaware lost its opening game at Marysville, 7 to 0.

BANK FUND GAIN FAILS TO CHANGE MONEY RATE

Interest Charge in New York Remains Unchanged as Reserves Increase

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

Railroad stocks strong; industrial stocks irregular; domestic bonds steady; foreign bonds steady; call money 5 per cent; grain fairly steady; copper irregular; oil firm; cotton steady; rubber fairly steady; sugar fairly steady; pig iron firm; foreign exchange steady.

New York, Sept. 27—(Noon Lead)—Notwithstanding a gain of $46,000,000 in the reserves of the New York City Clearing House Banks last week, the call money rate was unchanged at five per cent. today. The slight tightening of the money market was attributed to the preparations of the banks for their October settlements, beginning on Friday.

Anticipating the usual nervousness in the stock market on Thursday in connection with the possible upward revision of the New York Federal Bank rediscount rate, the professionals promptly renewed their selling tactics in the early trading today. After absorbing a good volume of week-end selling orders, the market made an effort to rally, under the lead of United States Steel and General Motors, the latter again advancing to 160. But these mild rallies were met with a new deluge of selling orders, against which it was impossible to make any headway.

The railroad stocks were firm but inactive, and equipments stocks displayed a much stronger tone, with Baldwin Locomotive up three points and American Loco up two. Bears had better success with the copper stocks, the oils, the moving picture specialties and the low-priced motors, though some of these stocks registered a moderate comeback in the second hour.

SINGS AS VIENNA REGAINS OLD GLORY

Lotte Silver

Vienna, once the Paris of mild-Europe and recently the scene of bitter hard times, is regaining its spirit, its music and its dancing. And of the beauteous ladies who are helping in the renaissance, Lotte Silver is one of the most lovely. She is a singer of unusual quality; in dress and manner, as in voice, she appeals particularly to those who admire deep, rich tones and flashing contrasts.

Today in Marion Markets

Groceries, Produce, Meats, Grain, Livestock

All provisions were rather scarce in Marion markets today following the usual Saturday sell-out. Vegetables occupying a high standard in the markets Saturday continued to sel lat reasonable prices but were far from plentiful.

Endive prices, doubled Saturday, continued at 30 cents a pound today. The displays were bringing only 15 cents Friday but were quoted at 30 cents Saturday.

Lemon Free Peaches for canning continued at a higher quotation than the general price, the variety being marked at $2.50 a bushel. Other varieties of peaches are selling at $1.65 and $2.

Lima Beans Scarce

Lima beans were selling at 50 cents a quart and 25 cents a pint today, the same quotation announced several days ago. The limas were scarce in the produce markets.

Oysters were unusually scarce today. Those selling in local stores were listed at 65 cents. The usual price Saturday was 60 and 65 cents a quart, a 10 and 15 cent drop from the quotations Friday, when they were listed as high as 75 cents.

Although pumpkins were hard to find in Marion today, the few on sale continued to retail at the week-end prices, 10 and 15 cents each. Squash prices remained at 10 cents.

Meat and egg prices were steady today following a slight drop Saturday when special prices prevailed. Eggs were selling at 40 cents a dozen.

Lard today was again selling at 17 cents a pound after a special price of three pounds for 47 cents offered Saturday.

RADIO HELPS BUILD OREGON'S RAILROAD

Chief Engineer for Southern Pacific Relates Interesting Facts

San Francisco, Sept. 27—How radio sets, together with steam shovels and dynamite, helped put through on time one of the largest railroad construction jobs of the last ten years, completion of which is now being celebrated throughout Oregon, was told here by George W. Boschke, chief engineer for the Southern Pacific railroad.

During the past three years more than seventy radio sets were in constant use in isolated construction camps in the Cascade Mountains along the route of the new $30,000,000 main line built to shorten the distance between San Francisco and Portland, and to open many thousands of acres of timable timber and farm lands to development and settlement.

"Throughout the summer and fall of 1924," Boschke said, "an average of 3,000 men lived and worked in the depths of the wilderness penetrated by the new line and radio was one of the principal sources of entertainment. In some camps rough dance floors were built and the men danced nightly to music of orchestras playing anywhere from San Francisco to New York.

Radio brought the remote camp into contact with the news of the world. Noted preachers, famous musicians, teachers, prizefights, bedtime stories and jazz bands nightly provided entertainment and instruction for engineers and laborers miles distant from the nearest village as work on the new Cascades line was rushed to copletion."

LONDON ZOO'S NEW BABY ONLY WEIGHS 112 POUNDS

London, Sept. 27—The birth of a 112 pound baby to Bobbie and Joan, the hippopotami at the London Zoological Gardens, was the occasion for great rejoicing, inasmuch as the last hippopotamus born in captivity at the Garden was as far back as 1862.

Close guard is being kept on Joan and the new arrival, keepers stating that if the mother is disturbed she will in all probability eat her offspring.

ALLER PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO FRAUD CHARGE

Bucyrus Judge Orders Trial of LaRue Contractor to Be Held Wednesday

Llewellyn L. Aller, LaRue contractor, indicted by grand jury on charges of fraud in connection with a public work, late Saturday entered a plea of not guilty to the accusations. Judge P. W. Wright of Bucyrus presided at the arraignment.

Overruling the motion of Prosecutor Frank Wiedemann asking that the case not be tried until Oct. 5 or Oct. 13, Judge Wright ordered the trial for Wednesday of this week, a date which had previously been set.

Aller is charged with removing quantities of cement from the sacks to be used in the construction of the curbs along the Marion-Delaware-rd.

File Answer

Claude and Earl Van Horn, 194 Elk-av, today filed an answer in the suit of Harry O. Phelps, contractor, 906 E. Church-st, against them.

Phelps is suing for $108 claimed due for labor in the construction of a cellar at the Van Horn home. Claude and Earl Van Horn in their answer today declared that they entered into a contract with Phelps to construct a water-proof concrete cellar. The cellar, they charge, is not water-proof and is constantly full of water.

The Van Horns assert that they have been damaged in excess of the amount due Phelps and ask that his petition be dismissed.

Preparing Assignments

Court Bailiff A. M. Davidson today was preparing a list of the assignment of cases for the petit jury of Marion County in their session, during the September term of court. The list, consisting of about 10 cases, will be completed Tuesday. The first case to be tried will be brought up Oct. 4.

Asks Partition

Suit for partition of 80 acres of land in Pleasant Township was today filed in Common Pleas Court by Mrs. Katherine M. Rutherford, widow of the late David Rutherford of Pleasant Township. Defendant in the suit is Miss Mary Louise Rutherford.

Mrs. Rutherford claims one-half interest in the property, waiving her dower rights in the premises and asks her share be apportioned to her. Mary Louise Rutherford is the only other heir to the former owner of the property, it is claimed.

Asks Foreclosure

Asking for the foreclosure of a mortgage to provide for the payment of a $210.83 judgment, The Credit, Loan & Discount Co. today filed an amended petition in its action against James M. Bunker, 239 Lincoln-av, and others.

The mortgage is held on lot No. 1148 in Wallace True's Fifth Addition to the city of Marion, according to the petition.

Named Administrator

Armand Monahan, 306 N. Main-st, has been appointed administrator of the estate of Henry Monahan, late of this city. The appointment was made by Probate Judge L. B. McNeal.

BANDIT TROOPS OF WU LOOT AND BURN TOWN

Dispatch Declares Number of British Missionaries Have Been Carried Off

London, Sept. 27—A news dispatch from Shanghai today stated that bandit troops belonging to General Wu Pei Fu's army have completely wiped out the town of Chow Kinkow, in Honan province, looting and burning the town and massacring inhabitants.

A number of British missionaries stationed there were carried off by the bandits, the dispatch stated.

General Wu Pei Fu is reported retreating toward Peking.

A message from the British forces in Chinese waters placed the native casualties in the Wansien engagement at three hundred, denying reports that 5,000 were killed.

FORMER MARION RESIDENTS NOT IN FLORIDA LIST

Letters Continue To Come to Residents Here Telling of Hurricane Experiences

No former Marion residents are listed among the casualties in the Florida storm district, according to messages and letters which continue to reach friends and relatives here, all bearing the news that while some suffered serious property loss, they escaped without serious injury. Had there been any in the list of dead or injured, the news would have reached here before this time, it is generally believed.

Jack Raymnd, director of the Grand Theater Orchestra, who left Hollywood, Fla., only a few days before the storm broke, received a letter this morning from Claude Chisholm of Selma, Ala., who played in a theater orchestra in Hollywood under Raymond's leadership last winter. His letter gives a vivid description of the storm and of its devastating effect in Hollywood and is accompanied by a photograph showing wreckage of the theater and of the home formerly occupied by Raymond.

Loses All Possessions

Lee Carlton, a nephew of Mr. Raymond's, lost all of his belongings, including clothing, in the disaster and the latest word from him stated that he had started walking to Atlanta, Ga., clad only in shirt and trousers provided him by the Red Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond arrived in Marion several days ago and are now living at 224 S. Highst.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Poorman, former Marion residents, are safe, according to a letter received this morning from Mr. Poorman by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Poorman of 481 Olney-ave. These former Marion people are in Clearwater, Fla., which was not in the district where the storm did its greatest damage.

Mrs. Edith Soule of 561 N. State-st received a letter Saturday informing her that Mr. and Mrs. Marley Edsell and family are safe at St. Petersburg. The damage to their property will total about $200. Mrs. Edsell is a daughter of Mrs. Soule.

Church Collections

No increase in the local collection of Florida relief funds has been reported to Red Cross headquarters, although it is believed that collections taken at several churches Sunday will add considerably to the total contributions from here. The amount of these collections had not been reported at noon today.

Miss Mipa Doughty, secretary of the local Red Cross Chapter, received a communication from national headquarters this morning stating that the national Chamber of Commerce, Federal Council of Churches and other organizations are cooperating in the movement to raise a $5,000,000 relief fund and want all local branches to take part in the work.

CONDITION UNCHANGED

The condition of Roy Hempy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hempy, Holland-rd five miles north of the city, was reported to be the same at City Hospital today. The boy sustained a fractured skull when he was kicked in the head by a plow horse at his home last Wednesday.

A Japanese woman believes that clean clothing does much toward keeping a person well. It is a part of her religion to wear clean clothes. She worships clean linen and the shades of her ancestors. If rich she wears silk instead of linen and as much of it as possible.

France and Electricity

In France there is to be an immense swimming pool, the floor of which will be lighted by electricity, and upon the roof of this, a sunbath of artificial sunshine. Visitors, for an admission fee of approximately ten cents, will be permitted to have a swim and then stay as long as they wish in the artificial "sun-bath." Special times are to be reserved for the use of schools.
